The Age of Federalism Stanley M. Elkins, Eric McKittrick, 1995-02-23 A history of the Federalist period combines biographical insights with analysis and reflection to capture the sweeping issues, remarkable personalities, and intricate controversies of the time in a swiftly moving narrative. Peabody College Paul Keith Conkin, 2002 Today George Peabody College is a part of Vanderbilt University as it has been since its merger in 1979. Its prior history was rich and complex. In this book, the author tells the story of Peabody's many lives, of its successes and failures, and of its many colorful leaders and professors. The South Atlantic Quarterly John Spencer Bassett, Edwin Mims, William Henry Glasson, William Preston Few, William Kenneth Boyd, William Hane Wannamaker, 1948 The Publishers Weekly, 1906 The Princeton Theology, 1812-1921 Mark A. Noll, 1983 Leading theologians introduce the Princeton Theology, a movement that has heavily influenced evangelicalism for the past 200 years. A Worthy Company Melvin E. Bradford, 1982 The Instructed Vision John Robert Moore, Pliny (the Younger.), Terence Martin, Selatie Edgar Stout, 1960 The Instructed Vision Terence Martin, 1969 Literary History of the United States Thomas Herbert Johnson, Robert Ernest Spiller, Richard M. Ludwig, 1962 American Education, the National Experience, 1783-1876 Lawrence Arthur Cremin, 1988 The Education Index, 1944 Duroc Bulletin and Live Stock Farmer, 1921 Reformed America Fred J. Hood, 1980 Analyzes the success of the Reformed in the middle and southern states. The success of the Reformed of the middle and southern states at shaping a distinctly American ideology of the relationship of religion and government was truly amazing. Unlike their New England counterparts, many of whom continued to enjoy some sort of establishment well into the nineteenth century, these Reformed entered the national experience with a backlog of experience in religious diversity and practical disestablishment and even in the South as religious dissenters. They would have preferred a religious establishment that would have essentially recognized the validity of their understanding of Christianity It was perhaps their own rigidity that caused them to fail in that attempt especially in Virginia But for such a rigid people and they were rigid they demonstrated a remarkable flexibility When it became apparent that the American legal settlement would be one in which the state disengaged from the support of religion the Reformed of the middle and southern states welcomed it and declared it to be the solution that would be most conducive to the spread and ultimate domination of Reformed Christianity Unlike twentieth century liberals the Reformed interpreted disestablishment as the legal and official recognition of the twin Reformation doctrines of the priesthood of all believers and the absolute and unquestioned authority of the Christian Scriptures And to a very large degree it was their definition rather than the thinking of Jefferson and Madison that captured the imagination of the American people and became the dominant popular opinion in the land But perhaps of even greater significance the Reformed of the middle and southern states forged an ideology that ultimately based American national prosperity on national adherence to Reformed Christianity Under the tutelage of John Witherspoon and Samuel Stanhope Smith the Reformed captured the Enlightenment and brought it into the service of Reformed Christianity altering traditional Calvinism in the process Witherspoon and Smith declaring that the truth of the law of nations could be devised by observation and reason alone propounded a doctrine of natural law and political science that substantially reinforced the Calvinistic doctrine of providence in an era of skepticism and enlightenment All history they argued proved beyond any reasonable doubt that those nations that adhered to the moral principles taught by Christianity had prospered and those that had taken a contrary route had fallen into ruin The Reformed preachers of whatever denomination picked up this message and proclaimed it throughout the land The United States if it were to prosper was required to be a Christian nation
