A Malay-English dictionary Richard James Wilkinson,1901 Mapping Agency Ulrike Lorenz-Carl,Martin Rempe,2016-05-13 Despite regionalism having developed into a global phenomenon the European Union EU is still more often than not presented as the role model of regionalism whose institutional designs and norms are adopted by other regional actors and organizations as part of a rather passive downloading process Reaching beyond such a Eurocentric perception Mapping Agency provides an empirically rich African perspective on regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa It adopts an actor centred approach but departs from a rather simplified understanding of agency as exerting power and instead scrutinizes to what extent actors actually participate in or are excluded from processes of regionalism The value of this volume derives from the inclusion of historical dimensions its open multi actor approach to both formal and informal processes and its comparative perspective within but also beyond Sub Saharan Africa The chapters offer a multifaceted picture of agency beyond disciplinary divides where the EU is one actor amongst many and where local national regional and global state and non state actors shape and sometimes break processes of regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa Armed Conflict and Forcible Displacement Elena Katselli Proukaki,2018-03-05 This book addresses the involuntary and arbitrary displacement of individuals resulting from armed conflict and gross human rights violations It shows that forcible displacement constitutes a serious violation of international law and of fundamental community interests Armed Conflict and Forcible Displacement provides a critical legal analysis of the contemporary international framework permeating forcible displacement in these circumstances and explores the rights that individuals possess with specific focus on the right not to be displaced and where this fails the right to return home and to receive property restitution In doing so this volume marries together different fields of international law and builds on the case studies of Cyprus Colombia Cambodia and Syria While the case studies considered here are far from exhaustive they are either little explored or present significant challenges due to the magnitude of displacement or contested international jurisprudence Through this analysis the volume exposes some of the legal challenges that individuals encounter in being protected from forcible displacement as well as the legal obstacles that persist in ensuring the return of and the recovery of property by the displaced It will be of interest to those interested in the fields of international law human rights law as well as conflict and war studies Diversity across the Arabian Peninsula Fabio Gasparini,Kamala Russell,Janet C.E. Watson,2024-10-17 This edited volume brings together a diverse and rich set of contributions on the Arabian Peninsula Ranging from history field linguistics and cultural studies these essays address the diversity of languages ways of life and natural environments that have marked the region throughout its history The book stems from the intellectual exchange and collaboration fostered by a virtual workshop that met regularly in 2020 21 and which drew participants from within and beyond the academy The contributions gathered in this volume highlight the need for a better understanding of a region that hosts a vast amount of culturally and linguistically diverse material often in a precarious state of conservation Diversity Across the Arabian Peninsula argues for the importance of holistic community based and interdisciplinary approaches to linguistic endangerment and deep social and cultural changes there is no documentation of language without attention to language use the material lifeworld and its ecology and social and cultural setting Such research is enriched and made more impactful through collaboration with communities and scholars from the Global South The essays in this volume thus spearhead a contextualized study of South Arabian linguistic varieties and their connection with the natural and cultural world they inhabit
