Jarman, 1962 The making of modern Britain T. K. Derry, T. L. Jarman, 1958 Samuel Smiles and the Victorian Work Ethic Tim Travers, 2021-02-25 Samuel Smiles is best known for his book Self Help 1859 which many have assumed to be an encouragement to social and financial success. However Smiles actually argued against the single minded pursuit of success and in favour of the protean formation of character as the ultimate goal of life. First published in 1987 this book examines Samuel Smiles' ideals of work and self help against the background of the Victorian work ethic. Drawing on sub literature such as pamphlets, periodicals, novels, works by Dissenting and Anglican ministers, popular success and self improvement books and general literature on the condition of the working classes, it presents a broad range of public opinion and attitudes towards work and in doing so creates an essential framework and context for Smiles' popular books. This book will be of interest to those studying Victorian history and ideology.

East India Company and Trade in South India Moola Atchi Reddy, 2023-09-08 This book presents the economic history of the English East India Company's trade as it functioned from Madras/Chennai during the second half of the 18th century. It traces the role of trade and commerce as followed by the European EICs to achieve their economic ends: territorial expansion and control of productive resources. The author portrays the nature, contents, volume and changing trends of trade and commerce over a decisive period of Indian economic history. The volume discusses the chief constituents of trade in general: exports, investments, imports and private trade and traders of Madras from 1746 to 1803. Rich in archival resources, this is an essential resource for administrators, students, scholars and researchers of colonial history and modern Indian economic history, besides British trade history.
