The Making Of The Masters:

The Making of the Masters David Owen, 1999-04-05 The Making of the Masters David Owen, 1999-04-05 The first full history of the making of sport's rite of spring the Masters Tournament by the acclaimed author of My Usual Game based on unprecedented access to the archives of the Augusta National Golf Club of color photos The Making of the Masters David Owen, 1999-04-05 The Making of the Masters David Owen, 1999 The Master in Bondage Huaiyin Li, 2023-03-28 Drawing on a rich set of original oral histories conducted with retired factory workers from industrial centers across the country this book provides a bottom up examination of working class participation in factory life during socialist and reform era China Huaiyin Li offers a series of new interpretations that challenge revise and enrich the existing scholarship on factory politics and worker performance during the Maoist years including the nature of the Maoist state as seen in the operation of power relations on the shop floor as well as the origins and dynamics of industrial enterprise reforms in the post Mao era In sharp contrast with the ideologically driven goal of promoting grassroots democracy or manifesting workers status as the masters of the workplace Li argues that Maoist era state owned enterprises operated effectively to turn factory workers into a well disciplined labor force through a complex set of formal and informal institutions that functioned to generate an equilibrium in power relations and work norms The enterprise reforms of the 1980s and 1990s undermined this preexisting equilibrium catalyzing the transformation of the industrial workforce from predominantly privileged workers in state owned enterprises to precarious migrant workers of rural origins hired by private firms Ultimately this comprehensive and textured history provides an analytically astute new picture of everyday factory life in the world's largest manufacturing powerhouse The Masters and Their Retreats Marl L. Prophet, Elizabeth Clare Prophet, 2020-08-28 The great lights who have come out of all the world's spiritual traditions and graduated from earth's schoolroom have become widely known as masters They demonstrate that in the world of Spirit there is no division of race religion or philosophy there is simply oneness ineffable sweetness and love What is not so widely known is that these great masters have retreats temples and cities of light in the heaven world where we can go in spiritual meditation and while our bodies sleep at night In this comprehensive work Mark and Elizabeth Prophet talk about these great masters the stories of their lives and their magnificent spiritual retreats Legal Aspects of the Music Industry Richard Schulenberg, 1999 This comprehensive reference features in depth discussions of every important music industry contract all enlivened by personal anecdotes from the author's wide ranging experiences Updated to reflect the rapid pace of change in the music industry this new edition includes a focus on group agreements live performances free music on the Internet the effect of the Millennium Copyright Act ancillary rights and the independent record label Other key issues covered include the artists rebellion against record company contracts litigation by superstars and songwriters against record labels and the industry wide downturn in record sales I wish this book had been available when I was starting out Sam Moore R attorneys universities and music schools and libraries Contains over 300 examples of contract provisions From the Hardcover edition The Master Mariner's Legal Guide Albert Saunders,1908 A Treatise on the Law of Master and Servant Charles Manley Smith,1860 Making the Masters David Barrett,2012-03-21 Contested the second weekend in April each year since 1934 the Masters is the world s most prestigious golf tournament and most watched tournament on television Tickets are in such demand that even the waiting list is closed and players value the title above all others In Making the Masters award winning golf writer David Barrett focuses his attention on how the Masters was conceived how it got off the ground in 1934 and how it fully established itself in 1935 The key figure in the tournament s creation and success was Bobby Jones who was a living legend after winning the Grand Slam in 1930 and immediately retiring at the age of twenty eight He went on to found Augusta National and sought a high profile tournament for his new course But nearly as important was Clifford Roberts a banker friend of Jones who not only embraced Jones s vision but became his right hand man in working to bring that vision to reality Barrett explores how Jones and Roberts built the Masters from scratch creating a golf institution embellished by the often surprising details of what that entailed as they were trying to establish a golf club and golf tournament in tough economic times It also vividly chronicles the events of the 1934 and 1935 Masters with Gene Sarazen s spectacular victory in 1935 providing the climax Set against the backdrop of golf and America in the 1930s the book provides an informative and entertaining read for fans of the Masters and students of golf history The Ship-master's Assistant and Owner's Manual David Steel,1801
