The Man Who Wrote In His Head And Other Stories Signed Limited Edition:

The Book-lover, 1899 Richard Aldington Vivien Whelpton, 2019-07-25 The story of Richard Aldington outstanding Imagist poet and author of the bestselling war novel Death of a Hero 1929 takes place against the backdrop of some of the most turbulent and creative years of the twentieth century Vivien Whelpton provides a remarkably detailed and sensitive portrayal of the writer from the age of thirty eight to his death from a heart attack in 1962 The first volume Richard Aldington Poet Soldier and Lover described Aldington's life as a stalwart of the pre war London literary scene his experience as an infantryman on the Western Front and his postwar personal and creative crises this second volume seeks to balance the stories of Aldington's subsequent public and private lives through a careful reading of his novels poems and letters with his circle of acquaintances The ways in which Aldington's dysfunctional childhood and survivor's guilt continued to haunt him through the inter war years and beyond are masterfully untangled by an author with gifted psychological insight into her subject Volume Two covers Aldington's personal and public lives as he transformed himself from poet to novelist and from novelist to biographer and explores his debacles and triumphs particularly in the wake of his hugely controversial attack on the reputation of T E Lawrence This authoritative biography recounts the life of one of the most underrated writers of the last century

Literary News, 1894 The Squire Quartet Brian W. Aldiss, 2018-07-03 Four loosely linked realistic novels from one of Britain's most accomplished and versatile writers The Guardian Hugo and Nebula Award winning science fiction writer British novelist Brian W Aldiss also regularly returned to earth with distinction penning realistic works including the Squire Quartet The New York Times Comprised of loosely interconnected novels following many characters through a twenty first century landscape of insidious new technology and international political turmoil Booklist here is the complete series from this ambitious and gifted writer The Guardian Life in the West Thomas C Squire creator of the hit documentary series Frankenstein Among the Arts one time secret agent and founder of the Society for Popular Aesthetics is attending an international media symposium in Sicily It is here that he becomes involved with the lovely but calculating Selina Ajdina Alongside the drama of the conference is the story of Squire's private life the tale of his infidelity the horrifying circumstances surrounding his father's death and the threatened future of his ancestral home in England A novel of ideas that is also eminently readable a virtuoso performance Publishers Weekly Forgotten Life Analyst Clement Winters is trying to write a biography of his recently deceased older brother Joseph Through the writings Joseph left behind letters diaries notes and confessions Clement realizes how vastly his perception of his sibling differs from reality As Clement tries to make sense of Joseph's life he uncovers dark corners of his family history and even his own existence A realistic novel imaginative richness a many layered venture into the extraordinariness of ordinary lives The New York Times Remembrance Day When four people are killed by a terrorist bombing in a small British seaside hotel an American academic examines the details of the victims lives and histories to find the relationship between them and their fate Aldiss discovers fresh and arresting
