Hospitality and Tourism Education in China Jigang Bao,Songshan (Sam) Huang,2021-12-30 This book is the first to systematically introduce China's tourism education system and the various tourism education practices in China to the international audience and stakeholders. China has the world's largest tourism education system which consists of over 1 000 higher learning institutions with tourism related programs and over half a million of tertiary level students studying in these programs. Despite the industry scale internationally little is known about this tourism education system and how it operates. Knowledge and better understanding of China's tourism education system are important as tourism becomes one of the critical forces transforming economy, society and environment. The book offers an historical evaluation of China tourism education development and elaborates on the current industry status and practices in different subject fields of China's tourism education including tourism management, hospitality management, events and festival management in higher education, tourism vocational education, tour guides training and certification, master of tourism administration, MTA education as a unique education model in China, PhD education in tourism, tourism curriculum research and international collaboration in tourism education in China. The book provides relevant knowledge to international tourism education providers, industry practitioners, human resource managers, government officials and tourism academics, researchers and students.

Contemporary Tourism Chris Cooper, C. Michael Hall, 2007-11-20. The study of tourism and indeed the tourism industry is changing constantly. Contemporary Tourism: an international approach presents a new and refreshing approach to the study of tourism considering issues such as the changing world order, destination marketing, tourism ethics and pro-poor tourism. In particular it highlights the ongoing threats from terrorism and health scares faced by the tourism industry today and discusses the related security and risk management strategies illustrating the potential implications for the patterns and flow of tourism in the future. Divided into five sections each chapter has a thorough learning structure including chapter objectives, examples, discussion points, self-review questions, checklists and case studies. Cases will be both thematic and destination based and always international. They will be used to emphasise the relationship between general principles and the practice of tourism looking at areas such as business and special interest tourism and the role of technology. The five sections will cover Contemporary Tourism Systems, The Contemporary Tourist, The Contemporary Tourist Destination, Tourism Futures, Teaching and Studying Contemporary Tourism. The text will also provide an annotated authoritative and thorough set of resources to guide the reader through the topic area including online resource sites for both students and lecturers.
