The Marines Of 8th And I:

The Marines of 8th and I T. L. Shows, Tl Shows, Johnny Mulligan, 2004-07 FROM AMONG THE SHADED ROW HOUSES OF WASHINGTON D C rise the weathered brick walls of the United States Marine Corps barracks at 8th and I For over 200 years the barracks has stood ready to protect the nation s capitol and faultlessly maintained its reputation as the ultimate example of military order and discipline PFC Dayton Stone feels fortunate to be selected for duty at this most prestigious of posts and sees it as an opportunity to understand for himself what it means to be a model marine He soon learns however that the barracks reputation for pomp and perfection is not all it seems The oppressive regimentation of barracks life and a system that acts to divide rather than unite the marines who serve there create conditions where betrayal drunken recklessness and violent rivalries flourish alongside the marines code of duty and honor

Marines of Washington Mark Blumenthal, 2004 Marines of Washington D C takes the reader on a visual tour that explores the dynamic history of the United States Marine Corps in the nation s capital The Marines have played an integral role in the development of the social structural and political landscape of Washington for over 200 years This volume traces the history of the Marines from the founding of the Oldest Post of the Corps Marine Barracks Washington in 1801 to participation in the War of 1812 the Civil War the World Wars and into the modern day Explore the lasting impact of famous Marines including Commandant Archibald Henderson Marine Band Director John Phillip Sousa and Commandants Alfred M Grey and John A Lejeune Marines of Washington D C highlights the unique relationship between the Marines of the nation s capital the President and the citizens of the United States they serve

Behind the Curtain Laurie Powell, 2021-07 Established in 1801 Marine Barracks Washington D C is located on 8th and I Streets in southeast Washington and is known as the Oldest Post in the Corps The Home of the Commandants one of the few Washington structures to have survived the War of 1812 stands sentry over the grounds an entire city street block This is the story of one year at the Barracks in the mid 1990s Under the command of Colonel Joshua Chamberlain Mansfield the Barracks began to slowly change Having served as a first lieutenant at the Barracks fifteen years earlier he s intent on modernizing it by incorporating women and racial minorities into its ranks He s also intent on making the Barracks and the people who serve there live up to his expectations of everything the Marine Corps stands for an in the flesh representation of the Marine Corps creed of honor courage and commitment with an added emphasis on the quality of grace under pressure with the goal of absolute perfection Over the last sixty years the Barracks has evolved to become the ceremonial command of the Marine Corp and is the home of the U S Marine Corps Band the Drum and Bugle Corps and the Silent Drill Platoon But it s most famous for its parades which take place during the summer the Friday Evening Parade at the Barracks and the Tuesday Evening Parade historically held at the Marine Corps War Memorial in Arlington These parades combine patriotic and popular music along with the perfectly choreographed marching of infantry Marines and their officers to not only create an unforgettable performance but more importantly a lasting impression of the class and eliteness of the Marine Corp In this final book of the Marine Corps trilogy featuring Jules Walker she as the first female Adjutant at the Barracks takes us behind the curtain of life at 8th and I The Boys in Blue White Dress William F. Lee, 2007-10-03 Very few Americans walk away unmoved from a Friday Evening Parade at the Marine Barracks 8th and I Sts SE Washington DC It s the oldest Post of the Corps By visiting The Barracks President Kennedy became the first President to do so since Thomas Jefferson in 1801 This brought about a special relationship with The Barracks Marines A bond that was brought to a tragic end by a sniper s bullet in November 1963 Lieutenant Barney Quinn tells little known details of the Death Watch at the casket and his inner most private thoughts While on this watch he also reflects on other ceremonies memories and moments and of the rowdy behavior of these rakish Boys in Blue White Dress These stand tall look sharp Marines at their roguish best created a work hard play hard life style similar to the yesteryear Corps Leathernecks Join Barney and the Boys in Blue White Dress Walk in their ceremonial shoes Kilo 3 Richard W Foster, Jr, 2021-03-31 This is the true story of a 17 year old kid who quit high school in his junior year to join the Marines After a short cruise with the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean he was assigned to a rifle company in Vietnam during the heaviest fighting of the war in 1967 and 1968 He went to Vietnam eager to save the world from Communism only to become disillusioned by the lack of progress in the field and mentally exhausted from the intensity of the ground combat Returning in shock from what he had seen and done he was assigned to the most prestigious Marine ceremonial detachment in the world the Special Ceremonial Platoon located at the oldest post of the Corps Marine Barracks at 8th and I Streets in Washington DC As part of this unit he served at the White House under two Presidents and at ceremonial duties all over DC The contrast from the jungle of Vietnam was startling While fighting constant nightmares of combat he stood before Presidents politicians celebrities and heads of state all the while maintaining the dignity and poise required for his position This book is honest graphic and yet enlightening ending positively For those interested in understanding the Marine Corps and the horror of personal ground combat contrasted with the bright lights and facades of Washington politics this book will not disappoint Reading Rick s chapters on The Barracks 8th I rekindled many fond and not so fond memories of our time together I was a fresh caught second lieutenant charged with the almost impossible task of transforming combat Marines into ceremonial perfectionists For a Marine to leave the mud and blood of Vietnam and report to the most fabled and oldest post of the Corps was something not every Marine could handle physically or emotionally Rick s reaction to the trauma and how he succeeded reminds me of the song Tin Man by America But Oz never did give nothing to the Tin Man that he didn t didn t already have I believe no one gave Rick anything he didn t already have He survived that transition with little help from anyone because he is that kind of Marine To become one of a nine man section responsible for the Marine Corps official colors and all presentations throughout the nation s capital is something only a few Marines can own For those fortunate enough to have watched a Friday Night Parade Rick s vivid description makes that MGM Production come to life No Marine leaves The Barracks untouched by the significance of it all Richard W Foster Jr is living proof of that Colonel Jim Bathurst US Marine Corps Ret
