The Market Tells Them So:

The Market Tells Them So John Mihevc,1995 Focuses on 1 theological dimensions of the structural adjustment vision promoted by the World Bank for Africa 2 criticism of structural adjustment from social scientific perspectives and 3 religious responses to this agenda that have emerged from churches and church based movements in Africa      Global Political

Economy Robert O'Brien,Marc Williams,2013-06-14 This text provides a broad ranging historical account of the emergence of a worldwide economy since the 15th century combined with a systematic analysis of the key frameworks of international political economy today      Economic Globalisation as Religious War Michael McKinley,2007-06-28 Using a critical theory approach to analyze the globalization of the world economy this provocative and topical new book presents economic globalization not as a recent development but rather as a familiar process that has occurred throughout history Michael McKinley argues that it is ultimately a self serving arbitrary and destructive imperial project that should be viewed as a religious war      Economies of Representation, 1790-2000 Dr Helen Gilbert,Dr Leigh Dale,2013-04-28 Although postcolonialism has emerged as one of the most significant theoretical movements in literary and cultural studies it has paid scant attention to the importance of trade and trade relations to debates about culture Focusing on the past two centuries this volume investigates the links among trade colonialism and forms of representation posing the question What is the historical or modern relationship between economic inequality and imperial patterns of representation and reading Rather than dealing exclusively with a particular industry or type of industry the contributors take up the issue of how various economies have been represented in Aboriginal art in literature by North American Caribbean Portuguese South African First Nations Australian British and Aboriginal authors and in a diverse range of writings that includes travel diaries missionary texts the findings of the Leprosy Investigation Commission early medical accounts and media representations of HIV AIDS Examining trade in commodities as various as illicit drugs liquor bananas tourism adventure fiction and modern Aboriginal art as well as cultural exchanges in politics medicine and literature the essays reflect the widespread origins of the contributors themselves who are based throughout the English speaking world Taken as a whole this book contests the commonplace view promoted by some modern economists that trade in and of itself has a leveling effect equalising cultures places and peoples demonstrating instead the ways in which commerce has created and exacerbated differences in power
