torial charge of a Philosophical Journal the writer announced his intention to prepare and publish as soon as convenient a work on Psychology a subject then as now exciting much interest among a Class of readers with whom he had been holding weekly communion A manuscript of such a work was during the few ensuing months nearly finished but various circumstances and considerations arose to prevent its publication among the chief of which were first that with the materials of psychological science then unfolded I found it impggs Sible to bring the work to a desired state of perfection and secondly that facts and principles such I was then able only to set forth were already rapidly forcing themselves into general notice in another way I concluded therefore to await the unfolding of further light upon a subject of which at that time no one could claim More than a very superficial knowledge and to postpone the publication of the results of my investigations until they were further matured and until the state of the public mind upon questions to which they related gave a fair indication that some particular use not accomplished by other dc velopments Might be possibly subserved in submitting them to general perusal These statements involve an explanation and apology to a large portion of my former readers who as I learn felt disappointed at the non appearance of the announced publication at the time it was expected and whose letters of inquiry respecting it I have in some instances been reluctantly compelled to leave unanswered About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Philosophies of Technology Claus Zittel, 2008 The essays in the present volume attempt to historically reconstruct the various dependencies of philosophical and scientific knowledge of the material and technical culture of the early modern era and to draw systematic conclusions for the writing of early modern history of science The divisive transformation of humanist scholarly culture the Scholastic school philosophy as well as magic in the form of a philosophy of practice is always associated with the work of Francis Bacon All of these essays in this volume reflect the close interaction between technical models and knowledge production in natural philosophy natural history and epistemology It becomes clear that the technological developments of the early modern era cannot be adequately depicted in the form of a pure history of technology but rather only as part of a broader cultural history of the sciences Contributors include Todd Andrew Borlik Arianna Borrelli Thomas Brandstetter Daniel Damler Luisa Dolza Moritz Eppe Berthold Heinecke Dana Jalobeanu J rgen Klein Staffan M ller Wille Romano Nanni Jarmo Pulkkinen Pablo Schneider Andr s Vaccari Benjamin Wardhaugh Sophie Weeks and Claus Zittel Macrocosm and Microcosm Rudolf Steiner, 2021-05-17 Rudolf Steiner shows how deeply and intimately human beings the microcosm are related to the macrocosm But for Steiner the macrocosm is more than just the physical universe It includes many hidden realms like the world of Elements and the world of Archetypes which lie behind outer manifestations such as our physical body The macrocosm works within us continuously in the daily alternation between sleeping and waking and in the great cyclical interchange between incarnation on earth and our time between death and rebirth Steiner discusses the various paths of self development that lead across the threshold to spiritual dimensions transforming human soul forces into organs of higher perception In future we will even have the capacity to evolve a form of thinking that is higher than the intellect the thinking of the heart In this classic series of lectures now retranslated and featuring a previously unavailable public address Rudolf Steiner also discusses the planets and their connection with our sleeping and waking life the inner path of the mystic the greater and lesser guardians of the threshold the Egyptian mysteries of Osiris and Isis initiation in the Northern mysteries The four spheres of the higher worlds mirror images of the macrocosm in man the strengthening powers of sleep the symbol of the Rose Cross reading the Akashic Record four dimensional space the development of future human capacities and much more The volume includes an introduction notes and index
