Beginning with a lively memoir of the author's experiences in the 60s the book goes on to explore apocalyptic thinking through perennial philosophy shamanism gnostic mysticism the body as a vessel of consciousness and death as an extended out of body experience and psychedelics Shaping the discussion is the fascinating metaphor of the cracking tower an apparatus for distilling gasoline as a vehicle for distilling our awareness Rather than speculating on what might occur in 2012 DeKorne proposes vigilance of a more introspective sort The important thing he says is to ignore the finger and strive to comprehend the moon to see what our apocalyptic tendencies reveal about ourselves
