The Internationalisation Strategies of Small-country Firms Howard Dick, David Merrett, 2007-01-01 This research project combines contemporary and historical analysis to trace the evolution of Australian multinationals It provides unique insights into how firms from a small economy achieved global competitiveness in their niche markets while examining the barriers that inhibited others The evidence is presented in comparative industry and firm case studies and tells the story of international business made in Australia The longitudinal and multi level analysis in this research provides new insights that challenge the predominance of cross sectional analytical framework dominating strategic management Any scholars

sincerely interested how companies from small countries can succeed on the global stage ought to read this book Klaus E Meyer University of Reading Business School UK The international business literature often struggles to depict a universal experience of internationalisation from the perspective of large countries This book seeks to enrich the literature by providing a nuanced overview of the little known Australian experience being an atypical case of a small to medium sized economy which liberalised rapidly from the 1980s outside any trading bloc Six data rich survey chapters explore Australia's mixed success in founding its own multinationals The experience of Australian firms is set in historical and comparative perspective including interactions with inward and specifically American FDI Five industry studies next consider why firms in retail wine and professional services were more successful than in financial services and shipping Nine detailed case studies of firms then identify the elements of administrative heritage strategy and learning that have been the key to success or failure The book concludes by outlining what can be learned from Australia's example and presenting implications for future research The Internationalisation Strategies of Small Country Firms will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in international business and international economics Log of Logs Ian Hawkins Nicholson, 1990 Birds of Lord Howe Island Ian Hutton, 1991 Colonialism and Male Domestic Service across the Asia Pacific Julia Martínez, Claire Lowrie, Frances Steel, Victoria Haskins, 2018-11-29 Examining the role of Asian and indigenous male servants across the Asia Pacific from the late 19th century to the 1930s this study shows how their ubiquitous presence in these purportedly humble jobs gave them a degree of cultural influence that has been largely overlooked in the literature on labour mobility in the age of empire With case studies from British Hong Kong Singapore Northern Australia Fiji and British Columbia French Indochina the American Philippines and the Dutch East Indies the book delves into the intimate and often conflicted relationships between European and American colonists and their servants It explores the lives of houseboys cooks and gardeners in the colonial home considers the bell boys and waiters in the grand colonial hotels and follows the stewards and cabin boys on steamships travelling across the Indian and Pacific Oceans This broad conception of service allows Colonialism and Male Domestic Service to illuminate trans colonial or cross border influences through the mobility of servants and their employers This path breaking study is an important book for students and scholars of colonialism labour history and the Asia Pacific region Ships Monthly, 1982 "Fiji--client State of Australasia?" Ernst Utrecht, Transnational Corporations Research Project (University of Sydney), 1984 Sea Breezes, 1999 Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress, 1982 Australian National Bibliography, 1981 Papua New Guinea National Bibliography, 1982 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Australian Transport Literature Information System, 1985
