interweaving summaries of military strategy with vignettes of civilian suffering Newsweek A masterful account of history's most destructive conflict Publishers Weekly Capitalism Contested Romain Huret, Nelson Lichtenstein, Jean-Christian Vinel, 2020-12-11 In the historical narrative that prevails today the New Deal years are positioned between two equally despised Gilded Ages the first in the late nineteenth century and the second characterized by the world of Walmart globalization and right wing populism in which we currently live What defines these two ages is an increasing level of inequality legitimized by powerful ideologies namely Social Darwinism at the end of the nineteenth century and neoliberalism today In stark contrast the era of the New Deal was first and foremost an attempt to put an end to inequality in American society In the historical longue durée it appears today as a kind of golden age when policymakers and citizens sought to devise solutions to the two major questions labor on one side social on the other that were at the heart of the American political economy during the twentieth century Capitalism Contested argues that the New Deal order remains an effective framework to make sense of the transformation of American political economy over the last hundred years Contributors offer an historicized analysis of the degree to which that political economic and ideological order persists and the ways in which it has been transcended or even overthrown The essays pay attention not only to those ideas and social forces hostile to the New Deal but to the contradictions and debilities that were present at the inauguration or became inherent within this liberal impulse during the last half of the twentieth century The unifying thematic among the essays consists not in their subject matter politics political economy social thought and legal scholarship are represented but in a historical quest to assess the transformation and fate of an economic and policy order nearly a century after its creation Contributors Kate Andrias Romain Huret William P Jones Nelson Lichtenstein Nancy MacLean Isaac William Martin Margaret O Mara K Sabeel Rahman Timothy Shenk Elizabeth Tandy Shermer Jason Scott Smith Samir Sonti Karen M Tani Jean Christian Vinel History for the IB Diploma: Nationalist and Independence Movements Stephen Nutt, Jean Bottaro, 2011-06-16 An exciting new series that covers the five Paper 2 topics of the IB 20th Century World History syllabus This stimulating coursebook covers Paper 2 Topic 4 Nationalist and independence movements in the 20th Century World History syllabus for the IB History programme The book is divided into thematic sections following the IB syllabus structure and is written in clear accessible English It covers the following areas for detailed study Africa and Asia Rhodesia Zimbabwe India and Pakistan Indochina and post 1945 Central and Eastern Europe Czechoslovakia Poland The content is tailored to the requirements and assessment objectives of the IB syllabus and provides opportunities for students to make comparisons between different regions and time periods Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library, 1990 Making modern mothers Rachel Thomson, Mary Jane Kehily, Lucy Hadfield, Sue Sharpe, 2011-06-22 What does motherhood mean today Drawing on interviews with new mothers and intergenerational chains of women in the same family this exciting and timely book documents the transition to motherhood over generations and time Exploring amongst other things the trend to later motherhood and the experience of teenage pregnancy a compelling picture emerges Becoming a mother is not only a profound moment of identity change but also a site of socio economic difference that shapes women s lives     Beyond Nuclear Thinking Robert W. Malcolmson,1990-10-01 Most of what is written on nuclear weapons concentrates understandably on the here and now the nuclear threat is a central and continuing fact of modern history But this is intellectually constricting both for understanding the nuclear age and for making thoughtful political judgments It is essential to recognize what we have inherited since 1945 and why people have thought about nuclear weapons in the way they have In Beyond Nuclear Thinking Robert Malcolmson analyses the development of nuclear weapons and nuclear strategy since 1945 connecting the legacies of the past with the politics of the 1990s The nuclear nation states still consider it legitimate to use the threat of nuclear weapons to achieve their own ends Malcolmson explains why the doctrine of deterrence became so central to the political idea of security and reveals the confused nature of recent approaches to the pursuit of international security Beyond Nuclear Thinking presents a non technical and broadly based interpretation of important aspects of life and thought in the nuclear age     Thatcher and Thatcherism Eric J. Evans,2013 This book focuses on the career of former British prime minister Margaret Thatcher and surveys the origins and impact of Thatcherism as a cultural construct and an economic creed
