Tom Grunfeld, 2015-02-24 An account of Tibet and the Tibetan people that emphasises the political history of the 20th century This book attempts to reach beyond the polemics by considering the various historical arguments using archival material from several nations and drawing conclusions focused on available documents

Tibetan Buddhists in the Making of Modern China Gray Tuttle, 2005-04-26 Over the past century and with varying degrees of success China has tried to integrate Tibet into the modern Chinese nation state In this groundbreaking work Gray Tuttle reveals the surprising role Buddhism and Buddhist leaders played in the development of the modern Chinese state and in fostering relations between Tibet and China from the Republican period 1912 1949 to the early years of Communist rule Beyond exploring interactions between Buddhists and politicians in Tibet and China Tuttle offers new insights on the impact of modern ideas of nationalism race and religion in East Asia After the fall of the Qing dynasty in 1911 the Chinese Nationalists without the traditional religious authority of the Manchu Emperor promoted nationalism and racial unity in an effort to win support among Tibetans Once this failed Chinese politicians appealed to a shared Buddhist heritage This shift in policy reflected the late nineteenth century academic notion of Buddhism as a unified world religion rather than a set of competing and diverse Asian religious practices While Chinese politicians hoped to gain Tibetan loyalty through religion the promotion of a shared Buddhist heritage allowed Chinese Buddhists and Tibetan political and religious leaders to pursue their goals During the 1930s and 1940s Tibetan Buddhist ideas and teachers enjoyed tremendous popularity within a broad spectrum of Chinese society and especially among marginalized Chinese Buddhists Even when relationships between the elite leadership between the two nations broke down religious and cultural connections remained strong After the Communists seized control they continued to exploit this link when exerting control over Tibet by force in the 1950s And despite being an avowedly atheist regime with the exception of the Cultural Revolution the Chinese communist government has continued to recognize and support many elements of Tibetan religious if not political culture Tuttle's study explores the role of Buddhism in the formation of modern China and its relationship to Tibet through the lives of Tibetan and Chinese Buddhists and politicians and by drawing on previously unexamined archival and governmental materials as well as personal memoirs of Chinese politicians and Buddhist monks and ephemera from religious ceremonies
