The Man Nobody Knows:

The Man Nobody Knows Bruce Barton, 1925 Presents an unconventional interpretation of the New Testament in which Jesus is portrayed as a social and virile man with strong qualities of leadership The Man Nobody Knows Bruce Barton, 2000-04-18 Bruce Barton's 1925 effort to reconfigure Jesus for the Roaring Twenties turned into one of the great best sellers of the century In The Man Nobody Knows Barton depicted Christ as a man's man not the meek effeminate figure he had encountered in Sunday School No Puritan or Prohibitionist this Jesus turned water into wine and was the most popular dinner guest in Jerusalem Here was the world's first advertising man whose parables sparkled as models for modern jingle writers Barton had co-founded the celebrated advertising firm of Batten Barton Durstine and Osborne Here was Christ the world's greatest business executive who picked up twelve men from the bottom ranks of business and forged them into an organization that conquered the world When in the 1950s Barton felt compelled to revise his often reprinted book for a new generation he blurred its focus In this new edition the historian Richard Fried revives the primary source in Barton's original language Mr Fried explores the book's rich insights into the culture of the 1920s revealing not only the union of religion and business but changing attitudes toward consumption and leisure sexuality and the roles of men and women The Man Nobody Knows Bruce Barton, The Man Nobody Knows Roy Pateman, 2005-01-05 In this book Roy Pateman provides the most reader friendly up to date biography of B Traven an enigmatic writer whose readership spread across broader class race and language divides more than anyone else writing during the twentieth century This unconventional biography discusses Traven's alternative histories followed by an attempt to find out the major influences of this elusive man Pateman addresses Traven's politics his life of humanist anarchism and discusses all of his works in English and German emphasizing The Death Ship The Treasure of the Sierra Madre and The Jungle Sextet Also included is a chronology of Traven's life which is fuller than that found in any other study The book ends with a modest solution to the intractable problem of who Traven really was and where he was born and raised The Man Nobody Knows Bruce Barton, 2011-10-13 The Man Nobody Knows is a 1925 work by American author and advertising executive Bruce Fairchild Barton His second book it presents Jesus Christ as a businessman and founder of Modern Business in an attempt to make the story accessible to contemporary businessman When first published it shot to the top of the non-fiction bestseller list Contents include Contents include Bruce Fairchild Barton How it Came to Be Written The Leader The Outdoor Man The Sociable Man His Method His Works and Words and The Master Many vintage books such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive It is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author The Man Nobody Knows Bruce Barton, 2016-03-21 Success is always exciting we never grow tired of asking what and how We wonder what are the principle elements behind someone's success Imagine what you could learn if you worked alongside some of the country's most successful people Imagine how you could identify patterns or 1927 and the Rise of Modern America Charles J. Shindo,2015-06-17 When Charles Lindbergh landed at LeBourget Airfield on May 21 1927 his transatlantic flight symbolized the new era not only in aviation but also in American culture The 1920s proved to be a transitional decade for the United States shifting the nation from a production driven economy to a consumption based one with adventurous citizens breaking new ground even as many others continued clinging to an outmoded status quo In his new book Charles Shindo reveals how one year in particular encapsulated the complexity of this transformation in American culture Shindo's absorbing look at 1927 shatters the stereotypes of the Roaring 20s as a time of frivolity and excess revealing instead a society torn between holding on to its glorious past while trying to navigate a brave new world His book is a compelling and entertaining dissection of the year that has come to represent the apex of 1920s culture combining references from popular films music literature sports and politics in a captivating look back at change in the making As Shindo notes while Lindbergh's flight was a defining event there were others The Jazz Singer for example brought sound to the movies and the 15 millionth Model T rolled off of Ford's assembly line Meanwhile the era's supposed live for today frivolity was clouded by Prohibition the revival of the Ku Klux Klan and the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti Such events Shindo explains reflected a fundamental disquiet running beneath the surface of a nation seeking to accommodate and understand a broad array of changes from new technology to natural disasters from women's forays into the electorate to African Americans migration to the urban north Shindo however also notes that this was an era of celebrity He not only examines why Lindbergh and Ford were celebrated but also considers the rise and growing popularity of the infamous like convicted murderers Ruth Snyder and Judd Gray and he illuminates the explosive growth of professional sports and stars like baseball's Babe Ruth. In addition, he takes a close look at cinematic heroines like Mary Pickford and the It girl Clara Bow to demonstrate the conflicting images of women in popular culture. Distinctive and insightful Shindo's richly detailed analysis of 1927's key events and personalities reveals the multifaceted ways in which people actually came to grips with change and learned to embrace an increasingly modern America.

Theatre Magazine W. J. Thorold, Arthur Hornblow, Arthur Hornblow (Jr.), Perriton Maxwell, Stewart Beach, 1928 Catholic World, 1929 Psychiana Man Brandon R. Schrand, 2022-01-24

Six weeks after the 1929 stock market crash, Frank Bruce Robinson created a self-help religion he called Psychiana. An ingenious mass marketing pioneer, he sold a correspondence course promising health, wealth, and happiness to those who believed in the God Power. In the midst of the Great Depression, his mail-order religion, with a money-back guarantee, swept the United States and spread to some sixty-seven countries or so, its founder claimed to become one of the most successful twentieth-century New Thought religions. Facing charges of passport fraud in May 1936, an immaculately dressed Robinson arrived at the federal building in rural Moscow, Idaho. A person of considerable local and regional significance, he was Latah County's largest private employer. Throngs lined the streets and sidewalks waiting for him. He exited his sleek green Duesenberg, waved to the crowd, and smiled for pictures. His son later wrote that the charismatic leader possessed an insatiable appetite for publicity. Central to the investigation was Robinson's true identity. He was not all he claimed to be, and his small-town trial captivated the country and made national headlines. A full-length biography of Robinson, combined with an in-depth historical examination of Psychiana, this book traces the improbable rise and fall of a master charlatan while also giving voice to his unwavering followers, from a dust-bowl farmer to a former heavyweight boxing champion who clung to their beliefs despite ongoing financial and emotional costs. Their stories reveal how adversity can galvanize faith in a false prophet and paint an intriguing, intimate portrait of a nation challenged by a brutal depression and war.
