Religion and Sexual Health: R.M. Green, 2013-03-14 Religious beliefs and attitudes have long been recognized as playing an important role in sexual functioning but the relationship between religion and sexual behavior has rarely been studied in a comprehensive way The essays in this volume bring the views of sex counsellors therapists theologians and bioethicists to bear on the relationship between religion and sexuality A major theme emerging from these essays is that religion and counselling need to learn from one another Religious traditions at the popular or theological levels are often marked by ignorance and misinformation about sexuality and can benefit by the insights of those who work closely with patients in medical and counselling settings Counsellors in turn need to develop a sensitivity to past and present religious attitudes toward sexuality in order to assist their patients achieve sexual health In Pursuit of Love Vincent J. Genovesi, 1996 While retaining the basic structure of the original book this new edition has been thoroughly updated in light of some official Catholic documents and other theological writings dealing with sexual morality that have appeared since 1986 The Catechism of the Catholic Church Pope John Paul II s encyclicals Veritatis splendor and Evangelium vitae and the 1986 and 1992statements of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith on pastoral care of homosexuals and the issue of discrimination against them are among the more recent magisterial publications considered in this text This edition also contains several new sections the misuses of sex adultery pornography prostitution sexual violence four rationales for viewing a committed love relationship as the only appropriate context for sexual intercourse marriage as a sacrament and marital sexuality and love as embodiments of commitment intimacy and passion and public policy and the civil rights of homosexuals This edition also includes an expanded discussion of topics such as sexism sexually transmitted diseases especially HIV AIDS and the moral questions raised by new family planning methods Norplant Depo Provera RU 486 postcoital hormonal interventions against pregnancy the start of human life and abortion Vincent I Genovesi SI received his

PhD in Christian ethics from Emory University He is a professor at St Joseph's University in Philadelphia His articles have appeared in such journals as The Thomist The Way America and Review for Religious The Spiral Path Theresa King, 1992-09 This treasure of diverse and visionary writings explores the sacredness of women's everyday lives Twenty two contemporary spiritual teachers including Irina Tweedie Brooke Medicine Eagle Swami Radha Bernadette Roberts and Mary Giles probe aspects of their lives from sexuality work and cooking to relationships prayer and mysticism A vision then emerges of women as extraordinary sacred beings their lives sources of personal and community transformation This book is a guide for those seeking a practical workable spiritual life Sex on Earth as It Is in Heaven Patricia Beattie Jung, 2016-12-28 Offers a new theology of desire and delight based on the Christian hope for bodily resurrection This work is part of a growing chorus of theological voices raised in support of erotic desire Although most theologians have concluded that there will be no experience of sexual desire and delight in the world to come Patricia Beattie Jung critically examines the historical traditions and biblical rationales for this teaching She defends an alternative claim that there will be a healed and glorified experience of sex in heaven based on a compelling account of the Christian hope for bodily resurrection The first half of the work focuses on Christian foundations for the notion of sex in heaven while the second goes on to discuss some of the implications of those convictions for sex on earth Jung concludes with discussions of how best to nurture sexual delight on earth and how and why internet pornography fails in that regard The book provides a valuable alternative reading of Christian eschatological thinking about resurrected bodies and a sensitive refreshing and candid discussion about sexual delight Adrian Thatcher author of God Sex and Gender An Introduction Anthropology Susan A. Ross, 2012 Drawing on the wisdom and teaching experience of highly respected theologians the Engaging Theology series builds a firm foundation for graduate study and other ministry formation programs Each of the six volumes Scripture Jesus God Discipleship Anthropology and Church is concerned with retrieving carefully evaluating and constructively interpreting the Christian tradition Comprehensive in scope and accessibly written these volumes used together or independently will stimulate rich theological reflection and discussion More important the series will create and sustain the passion of the next generation of theologians and church leaders What does it mean to be human in the twenty first century Susan Ross explores this question through the lens of human desires for God freedom knowledge love and pleasure but also for power consumer goods self gratification and money Beginning with biblical narratives of human desires she goes on to consider how ancient medieval and modern thinkers have wrestled with the various ways that human beings have sought fulfillment in the world and in God The twenty first century brings new questions and continuing challenges In a world of increasing complexity and fragmentation can we still talk about the self How have feminism and new thinking about sexuality changed the ways we think about ourselves How do we maintain our humanity in the face of monstrous human evil What do the findings of science say about our uniqueness as human beings Anthropology Seeking Light and Beauty offers a path through the many conflicting views of humanity suggesting a fuller way of living as we try to follow the example of Jesus Sacred Rights Daniel C. Maguire, 2003-04-03 This book presents the work of the Sacred Choices Initiative of the Religious Consultation on Population Reproductive Health and Ethics The purpose of this Packard and Ford Foundation supported initiative is to attempt to change international discourse on family planning and to rescue this debate from superficial sloganeering by drawing on the moral stores of the world's major and indigenous religions. In many of the world's religions there is a restrictive and pro natalist view on family planning and this is one legitimate reading of those religious traditions As the essays in this volume demonstrate however this is not the only legitimate or orthodox view These authors show that the paramaters of orthodoxy are wider and gentler than that and that the great religious traditions are wiser and more variegated and nuanced than a simple repetition of the most conservative views would suggest This theme is carried out in essays on each of the world's major religious traditions written by scholar practitioners of those faiths Scandals G. Lloyd Rediger, Recent sexual scandals have rocked the North American religious scene and left the churches concerned about credibility and liability What are the bounds of clergy sexuality What constitutes misconduct and what legal moral and religious norms apply More broadly what has gone wrong and how can clergy understand their own sexuality and their lives of service Lloyd Rediger is a uniquely qualified national expert on all these questions with a strong message for clergy about their sexuality spirituality and behavior In this timely volume which incorporates material from his earlier volume Ministry and Sexuality Rediger brings his extensive research clinical experience and theological insights to bear on the topic He offers a comprehensive authoritative account of clergy sexuality and sexual ethics with up to date legal information helpful research on ethnic gender and denominational factors a religious and moral framework for understanding clergy sexuality and analysis of the sexual problems encountered by clergy Learn more about Dr Rediger at his website This volume could well become the standard pro fessional resource for clergy in a new era of increased Leaving and Coming Home David M. Cloutier, 2010-06-04 SINCE 2002 THE accountability and moral reflection SYMPOSIUM NEW WINE NEW WINESKINS HAS OFFERED AN OPPORTUNITY for young Catholic moral theologians to engage in shared work and conversation Here the fruits of these labors are gathered into one collection which represents the wide scope of the future of Catholic sexual ethics This volume offers the first collection of a new generation s approaches to Catholic sexual ethics The collection displays young scholars with diverse views yet whose work moves beyond the impasses that have beset the field The volume offers original and engaging essays on a variety of topics from the hook up culture and dating violence to cohabitation and homosexuality to contraception and natural family planning to the promises and pitfalls of the theology of the body The authors display a fresh engagement with these issues in conversation with the Christian tradition and with contemporary culture David Cloutier provides an introduction that locates this work within the past decades of Catholic scholarship and articulates new categories for future work The essays also offer practical insights and models that will interest pastors and lay ministers as well as scholars Virtue Charles E. Curran, Lisa Fullam, 2011 This edited volume focuses on virtue using the same perspective that has characterized the previous fifteen volumes in the prestigious series Readings in Moral Theology from Paulist Press begun by Charles E Curran and Richard A McCormick in 1979 This volume brings together fourteen previously published articles dealing in a comprehensive manner with the important topic of the role of virtue in moral theology and the Christian life The contributors to this volume include the most important figures in Catholic moral theology who have written about virtue In addition the authors represented here come from the different theological perspectives found in moral theology today. The first part deals with the role of virtue in general beginning with an overview of the seminal work of Thomas Aguinas A second chapter explains the important work of Alasdair MacIntyre while the last two chapters in this part come from the Catholic and feminist perspectives The three chapters in the second part discuss the role of the various virtues in three different spheres of human existence professional life sexuality and ecology The third part develops in some depth the significant particular virtues of charity justice prudence courage and humility Claiming Our Deepest Desires M. Bridget Brennan, Jerome L. Shen, 2004 Claiming Our Deepest Desires integrates the spirituality of marriage with the practical experience of marriage M Bridget Brennan and Jerome L Shen a married couple invite readers to reflect on God's call to marriage the nature of the call and the acceptance Readers contemplate true love intimacy and how love is expressed and received in their marriage. The book addresses attitudes that are helpful for dealing with obstacles and fears that hinder intimacy. The rhythms cycles and stages in a marriage are discussed to provide awareness for a married couple The wants needs and requirements for the relationship are acknowledged The authors delve into some specific aspects of marriage by considering the process of making decisions as a couple discussing making life choices and different perspectives on the use of time and money One chapter is devoted to love making Communication and conflict resolution are brought up as well as the call to mission The book ends by focusing on the hopes dreams and Vision that we have for marriage and how that motivates us to live better and more joy filled lives today Claiming Our Deepest Desires is for adults in healthy committed married relationships who wish to grow in love and intimacy to realize the full promise of marriage Ideally spouses will read reflect on and discuss the book together It can be used by individuals small groups or as a supplemental text to university level courses Chapters are Call to Marriage What Is Love and Intimacy Growing in Love and Intimacy The Dynamics of Relationship Making Decisions on Life Choices Time and Money Making Love in a Sexually Charged World Conflict and Communication Mission Fruit of a Vibrant Marriage and The Fruit of Love Is Joy Exercises and reflection questions are provided at the end of each chapter M Bridget Brennan is the director of marriage ministry at St Francis Xavier Church on the campus of St Louis University She serves as a consultant with the St Louis Archdiocesan Office of Laity and Family Life She is founder and president of The Cana Institute She also serves as an adjunct instructor at Aquinas Institute School of Theology and St Louis Community College Jerome L Shen served as director of fundamental research for DuPont Protein Technology International for several years Presently he serves as visiting professor of chemistry at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Illinois Bridget and Jerry travel throughout the United States presenting retreats and workshops for married couples In addition they direct marriage preparation seminars for first time marriages second time marriages and inter faith marriages On Being Unfinished Patrick, Anne E., 2017-11-16 Gathered here for the first time are both published and unpublished writings of Anne E Patrick a leading feminist Catholic voice revered both as a teacher and as a critical scholar of theology ethics literature and the arts Her scholarly publications broke new ground in a number of Catholic theological subdisciplines including feminist ethics liturgy and contemporary expressions of religious life This is an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand post Vatican II theological development in the Catholic Church in the US The Vatican and Homosexuality Jeannine Gramick, Pat Furey, 1988 Bundel met reacties van Amerikaanse pastorale werkers en actieve katholieken op de Brief aan de bisschoppen van het Vaticaan uit 1986 waarin een enorme stap achteruit gedaan werd to v homoseksualiteit Passionate Spirituality Elizabeth Dreyer, 2005 Passionate Spirituality explores the roots and meanings of passion in Western culture and then examines how passion is expressed in the works of two medieval women mystics Hildegard of Bingen and Hadewijch of Brabant and in the lives of contemporary Christians seeking to deepen their own spiritual journeys Too often the term passion is associated only with steamy films sexual sin and emotional excess cutting off the breadth of its meaning and expression for positive good But the great mystics succeed precisely because they hold together both the affective and the intellectual aspects of the spiritual life in creative and convincing ways Their accounts of their mystical experience are important resources for information and understanding about how to talk about God more formally and for what it means to be passionately in love with God and the world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Earth Crammed with Heaven Elizabeth Dreyer,1994 For too long says Elizabeth Dreyer the kind of spirituality taught to Christian lay people has been clerical and monastic It has not been grounded in the ways of living actually experienced by lay people incorporating sexuality childraising work the marketplace and the earth A major effort is being made in our day to reformulate spirituality in a way that makes sense to ordinary Christians More than anything else this new attitude proclaims that God is best discovered not in the withdrawal from everyday life but in the act of living it Earth Crammed with Heaven is a pioneering attempt to articulate the paradigm shift in attitudes toward lay spirituality. It is written for persons who are on an intentional spiritual journey that has everyday existence and the entire world as its focal points It maintains that baptized Christians do not have to change their daily activities in order to become saints The potential for sainthood is located in the depth and intentionality of ordinary living BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Sexual Health: Moral and cultural foundations Mitchell Tepper, Annette Fuglsang Owens, 2007 VOLUME 1 Psychological Foundations CONTENTS Sexual health Definitions and construct development Health benefits of sexual
