Songs from the Williamsburg theatre; a selection of fifty songs performed on the stage in Williamsburg in the eighteenth century, arranged for voice and keyboard instrument and with introduction and historical commentaries by John W. Molnar John W. Molnar, Virginians Will Dance or Die! Joshua R. LeHuray,2016-06-05 Music was everywhere in pre Revolutionary Williamsburg Virginia In 1771 plantation owner Landon Carter noted in his diary that he could hear instruments through the windows of every house in town In taverns and private homes at formal performances and dances and casually around the campfire music filled the daily lives of the people of Williamsburg While the average citizen enjoyed music during public events the city s elite emulating their British counterparts spent lavishly on instruments sheet music and private lessons and held private concerts and dances Williamsburg s theater the first of its kind in America provided a venue for all Virginians and brought numerous musical acts to the stage Drawing on contemporary newspaper accounts this book is the first to explore how some 18th century Williamsburg citizens experienced the growing musical world around them A History of American Music Education Michael Mark,Charles L. Gary,2007-04-16 A History of American Music Education covers the history of American music education from its roots in Biblical times through recent historical events and trends It describes the educational philosophical and sociological aspects of the subject always putting it in the context of the history of the United States It offers complete information on professional organizations materials techniques and personalities in music education Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1973 The Songs of Foxhunting ,1974
