Songs Made Famous By The Romantics:

Post-War French Popular Music: Cultural Identity and the Brel-Brassens-Ferré Myth Adeline Cordier, 2016-04-08
Jacques Brel Georges Brassens and L o Ferr are three emblematic figures of post war French popular music who have been constantly associated with each other by the public and the media They have been described as the epitome of chanson and of Frenchness But there is more to the trio than a musical trinity this new study examines the factors of cultural and national identity that have held together the myth of the trio since its creation This book identifies the combination of cultural and historical circumstances from which the works of these three singers emerged It presents an innovative analysis of the correlation between this iconic trio and the evolution of national myths that nurtured the cultural aspirations of post war French society It explores the ways in which Brel Brassens and Ferr embody the myth of the left wing intellectual and of the authentic Gaul spirit and it discusses the ambiguous attitude of post war French society towards gender relations The book takes an original look at the trio by demonstrating how it illustrates the popular representation of a key issue of French national identity the paradoxical aspiration to both revolution and the maintenance of the status quo Nicolae Bretan, His Life, His Music Hartmut Gagelmann, 2000 The rediscovery of Bretan and the revival of his music today are important for two reasons The need for atonement for the political injustice done to the man himself in his own country and as an artist is fairly obvious But the recovery of his works is a cultural obligation we all must share as we must with respect to all of Western culture s great artistic creations BOOK JACKET The Literature Book DK, 2016-05-26 Books let s face it are better than anything else Nick Hornby Turn the pages of The Literature Book to discover over 100 of the world s most enthralling reads and the literary geniuses behind them Storytelling is as old as humanity itself Part of the Big Ideas Simply Explained series The Literature Book introduces you to ancient classics from the Epic of Gilgamesh written 4 000 years ago as well as the works of Shakespeare Voltaire Tolstoy and more and 20th century masterpieces including Catch 22 Beloved and On the Road The perfect reference for your bookshelf it answers myriad questions such as what is stream of consciousness who wrote To Kill a Mockingbird and what links the poetry of Wordsworth with that of TS Eliot Losing yourself in a great book transports you to another time and place and The Literature Book sets each title in its social and political context It helps you appreciate for example how Dickens Bleak House paints a picture of deprivation in 19th century England or how Stalin s climb to power was the backdrop for George Orwell s 1984 With succinct plot summaries graphics and inspiring quotations this is a must have reference for literature students and the perfect gift for book lovers everywhere Series Overview Big Ideas Simply Explained series uses creative design and innovative graphics along with straightforward and engaging writing to make complex subjects easier to understand With over 7 million copies worldwide sold to date these award winning books provide just the information needed for students families or anyone interested in concise thought provoking refreshers on a single subject Shakespeare and the Culture of Romanticism Joseph M. Ortiz, 2013 How theatre directors actors poets women writers political philosophers gallery owners and other professionals in the nineteenth century turned to Shakespeare in myriad ways to advance their own political artistic or commercial agendas is the subject of this collection Whether Whig or Tory male or female intellectual or commercial Romantic writers found in Shakespeare a powerful medium through which to claim authority for their particular interests
