Musica Australis, 1999      J.S. Bach in Australia: Studies in Reception and Performance Denis Collins, Kerry Murphy, Samantha Owens, 2018-12-01 This book is the first to be dedicated to a study of the reception of a major European composer in Australia Each of the eleven essays explores how J S Bach s music has enriched Australian cultural life from private performances in the early nineteenth century to historically informed realisations in recent years The authors outline the challenges of mounting and sustaining this repertoire in the face of underdeveloped musical infrastructure and limited resources and how these challenges have been overcome with determination and insight Championed by imaginative individuals such as Ernest Wood and Leonard Fullard in Melbourne E H Davies in Adelaide and W Arundel Orchard in Sydney Bach s music has been a vehicle for the realisation of Australians cultural aspirations and a means of maintaining connections with traditions that continue to be cherished today      Burma, Kipling and Western Music Andrew Selth, 2016-11-03 For decades scholars have been trying to answer the question how was colonial Burma perceived in and by the Western world and how did people in countries like the United Kingdom and United States form their views This book explores how Western perceptions of Burma were influenced by the popular music of the day From the First Anglo Burmese War of 1824-6 until Burma regained its independence in 1948 more than 180 musical works with Burma related themes were written in English speaking countries in addition to the many hymns composed in and about Burma by Christian missionaries Servicemen posted to Burma added to the lexicon with marches and ditties and after 1913 most movies about Burma had their own distinctive scores Taking Rudyard Kipling s 1890 ballad Mandalay as a critical turning point this book surveys all these works with emphasis on popular songs and show tunes also looking at classical works ballet scores hymns soldiers songs sea shanties and film soundtracks It examines how they influenced Western perceptions of Burma and in turn reflected those views back to Western audiences The book sheds new light not only on the West s historical relationship with Burma and the colonial music scene but also Burma s place in the development of popular music and the rise of the global music industry In doing so it makes an original contribution to the fields of musicology and Asian Studies      The Music of Love Dorothy Auchterlonie, Dorothy Green, 1984      Pirate Song George Whitefield Chadwick, 1920      Music for Macbeth Amanda Eubanks Winkler, 2004-01-01 xx 104 pp Performance parts available      Catalogue of (printed) music. Music. Accessions, pt.[1]-94 British museum dept. of pr. books, 1884      Light, Freedom and Song David Pierce, 2005-01-01 In this absorbing analysis of modern Irish writing an acknowledged expert considers the hybrid character of modern Irish writing to show how language culture and history have been affected by the colonial encounter between Ireland and Britain Examining the great themes of loss and struggle David Pierce traces the impact on Irish writing of the Great Famine and cultural nationalism and considers the way the work of Ireland s two leading writers W B Yeats and James Joyce complicate and elucidate our view of the harp and the crown The book draws a contrast between the West of Ireland in the 1930s when the new Irish State enjoyed its first full independent decade and the North of Ireland in the 1980s when the spectre of British imperialism threatened the stability of Ireland Pierce then surveys contemporary Irish writing and reflects on the legacy of the colonial encounter and on the passage to a postmodern or postnationalist Ireland in the work of such crucial living writers as John Banville Derek Mahon and John McGahern
