and of Experience Showing the Two Contrary States of the Human Soul Innocence and Experience are definitions of consciousness that rethink Milton's existential mythic states of Paradise and the Fall Blake's categories are modes of perception that tend to coordinate with a chronology that would become standard in Romanticism childhood is a state of protected innocence rather than original sin but not immune to the fallen world and its institutions This world sometimes impinges on childhood itself and in any event becomes known through experience a state of being marked by the loss of childhood vitality by fear and inhibition by social and political corruption and by the manifold oppression of Church State and the ruling classes The volume's Contrary States are sometimes signalled by patently repeated or contrasted titles in Innocence Infant Joy in Experience Infant Sorrow in Innocence The Lamb in Experience The Fly and The Tyger The stark simplicity of poems such as The Chimney Sweeper and The Little Black Boy display Blake's acute sensibility to the realities of poverty and exploitation that accompanied the Dark Satanic Mills of the Industrial Revolution

Songs of Innocence and Songs of Experience William Blake, 1894-03-01 Blake's Songs of Innocence and Experience 1794 juxtapose the innocent pastoral world of childhood against an adult world of corruption and repression while such poems as The Lamb represent a meek virtue poems like The Tyger exhibit opposing darker forces Thus the collection as a whole explores the value and limitations of two different perspectives on the world Many of the poems fall into pairs so that the same situation or problem is seen through the lens of innocence first and then experience Blake does not identify himself wholly with either view most of the poems are dramatic that is in the voice of a speaker other than the poet himself Blake stands outside innocence and experience in a distanced position from which he hopes to be able to recognize and correct the fallacies of both In particular he pits himself against despotic authority restrictive morality sexual repression and institutionalized religion his great insight is into the way these separate modes of control work together to squelch what is most holy in human beings
