You Are My Son Amy L. B. Peeler,2014-04-24 The author of Hebrews calls God Father only twice in his sermon This fact could account for scholarship s lack of attention to the familial dynamics that run throughout the letter Peeler argues however that by having God articulate his identity as Father through speaking Israel s Scriptures at the very beginning and near the end of his sermon the author sets a familial framework around his entire exhortation The author enriches the picture of God s family by continually portraying Jesus as God s Son the audience as God s many sons the blessings God bestows as inheritance and the trials God allows as pedagogy The recurrence of the theme coalesces into a powerful ontological reality for the audience because God is the Father of Jesus Christ they too are the sons of God But even more than the model of sonship Jesus relationship with his Father ensures that the children of God will endure the race of faith to a successful finish because they are an integral part of comprehensive inheritance promised by his Father and secured by his obedience Because of the familial relationship between God and Jesus the audience of Hebrews God s children can remain in the house of God forever God's Plan for Me Valeria Franklin,2009-07 Why Should You And I Believe God's Word?

The Spirit World Clarence Larkin, 1921 In this day of the revival of Spiritism when so many through the loss of loved ones in the Great World War are longing to communicate with the dead and are resorting to forbidden means to that end a day in which science is trying to discover whether there is another world than this and whether men live after death and if so can they communicate with the living it seems timely that a book should be written to show what the Holy Scriptures have revealed of the World of Spirits The Bible has much to say about the Spirit World and if we will carefully search its pages we shall know all there is to be known in this life of the World to Come For if men will not listen to Moses and the Prophets they will not be persuaded though one rose or came back from the dead Luke 16 31
