West Indies Ltd Nicolás Guillén, 1975 Historia, intrahistoria y compromiso social en siete poetas hispánicos Manuel Antonio Arango L., 2007 Historia intrahistoria y compromiso social en siete poetas hispánicos es un análisis crítico social de la obra parcial de siete poetas hispánicos que con diferentes maneras de su expresión lírica se alana el dolor la injusticia la discriminación y la tragedia de sendos grupos sociales Manuel Antonio Arango L. analiza la historia y la intrahistoria a fin de profundizar en el estudio del contexto social en los seres marginados en el marco de la sociedad española y de la América Hispana Arango L. se ala cuidadosamente el fondo poético de los siete poetas para demostrar que ellos quisieran hacerse partícipes del dolor en los seres marginados y se alar el desconcierto en la inmensidad del universo perdido en una sociedad inmutable llena de dolor y de muerte De esta manera el autor del presente libro es un claro ejemplo del esfuerzo por estudiar y profundizar el contexto en la poesía social en España y de la América Hispana a través de la obra poética de Rubén Darío Federico García Lorca Nicolás Guillén Manuel del Cabral Palés Matos César Vallejo y Pablo Neruda A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007 The evolution of Latin American literature A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day It shows how the press and its product the printed word functioned as the common denominator binding together in different ways over time the complex and variable relationship between the writer the reader and the state The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and García Márquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry prose the novel drama and the essay A final chapter evaluates the post boom novel testimonio Latino and Brazyuca literature gay Afro Hispanic and Afro Brazilian literature along with the Novel of the New Millennium This study also offers suggestions for further reading STEPHEN M HART is Professor of Hispanic Studies University College London and Profesor Honorario Universidad de San Marcos Lima Latin American Poetry Gordon Brotherston, 1975-11-13 This study considers the ways Spanish American and Brazilian poets differ from their European counterparts by considering Latin American as more than a perfunctory epithet It sets the orthodox Latin tradition of the subcontinent against others that have survived or grown up after the conquest then pays attention to those poets who from Independence have striven to express a specifically American moral and geographical identity Dr Brotherston focuses on Modernismo or the coming of age of poetry in Spanish America and Brazil and the importance of the movements associated with it He considers César Vallejo and Pablo Neruda probably the greatest of the selection Octavio Paz and modern poets who have reacted differently to the idea that Latin

Uniting Blacks in a Raceless Nation Miguel Arnedo-Gómez, 2016-05-12 The Cuban writer Nicol s Guill n has traditionally been considered a poet of mestizaje a term that whilst denoting racial mixture also refers to a homogenizing nationalist discourse that proclaims the harmonious nature of Cuban identity Yet many aspects of Guill n s work enhance black Cuban and Afro Cuban identities Miguel Arnedo G mez explores this paradox in Guill n s pre Cuban Revolution writings placing them alongside contemporaneous intellectual discourses that feigned adherence to the homogenizing ideology whilst upholding black interests On the basis of links with these and other 1930s Cuban discourses Arnedo G mez shows Guill n s work to contain a message of black unity aimed at the black middle classes Furthermore against a tendency to seek a single authorial consciousness be it mulatto or based on a North American construction of blackness Guill n s prose and poetry are also characterized as a struggle for a viable identity in a socio culturally heterogeneous society The Epic of Latin American Literature Arturo Torres-Rioseco, Ibero-American Ecocriticism J.
