New Wave, New Hollywood Gregory Frame,Nathan Abrams,2021-09-23 As a period of film history The American New Wave ordinarily understood as beginning in 1967 and ending in 1980 remains a preoccupation for scholars and audiences alike In traditional accounts it is considered to be bookended by two periods of conservatism and viewed as a brief period of explosive creativity within the Hollywood system From Bonnie and Clyde to Heaven's Gate it produced films that continue to be watched discussed analysed and poured over It has however also become rigidly defined as a cinema of director auteurs who made a number of aesthetically and politically significant films This has led to marginalization and exclusion of many important artists and filmmakers as well as a temporal rigidity about what and who is considered part of the New Wave proper This collection seeks to reinvigorate debate around this area of film history It also looks in part to demonstrate the legacy of aesthetic experimentation and political radicalism after 1980 as part of the legacy of the New Wave Thanks to important new work that questions received scholarly wisdom reveals previously marginalised filmmakers and the films they made considers new genres personnel and films under the banner of New Wave New Hollywood and reevaluates the traditional approaches and perspectives on the films that have enjoyed most critical attention New Wave New Hollywood Reassessment Recovery Legacy looks to begin a new discussion about Hollywood cinema after 1967 American Women's History Glenna Matthews,2000-05-25 An encyclopedia of American women's history this comprehensive reference book features in depth articles on trends e.g birthrates suburban growth social movements civil rights feminism ideas and concepts domesticity consciousness raising institutions Children's Bureau women in Congress organizations Girl Scouts of America League of Women Voters events American Revolution issues abortion Equal Rights Amendment key legal cases Roe v Wade Muller v Oregon laws and constitutional amendments documents and publications Ramona Declaration of Sentiments ethnic and social groups African American women Latinas overviews women's health women in music and literature and biographies of notable American women This Companion is a perfect supplement to The Young Oxford History of Women in the United States Oxford's Student Companions to American History are state of the art references for school and home specifically designed and written for ages 12 through adult Each book is a concise but comprehensive A to Z guide to a major

Thomas McGlamery, 2013-04-15 This book analyzes the work of Herman Melville John Dos Passos and Zora Neale Hurston alongside biographical materials and discourses on the body Thomas McGlamery views each of these authors literary output as an effort to work through the political meanings associated with the body examining how they negotiate identities of class gender race sexuality and age Multiethnic Literature and Canon Debates Mary Jo Bona, Irma Maini, 2012-02-16 This groundbreaking collection reinvigorates the debate over the inclusion of multiethnic literature in the American literary canon While multiethnic literature has earned a place in the curriculum on many large campuses it is still a controversial topic at many others as recent campus and corporate revivals of The Great Books attest Many still perceive multiethnic literature as being governed by ideological and political issues perpetuating a false distinction between highbrow literary texts and multiethnic works Through historical overviews and textual analyses the contributors not only argue for the aesthetic validity of multiethnic literature but also examine the innovative ways in which multiethnic literature is taught and critiqued The following questions are also addressed Who and what determines literary value What role do scholars students the reading public book awards and or publishers play in affirming literary value Taken together these essays underscore the necessity for maintaining vibrant conversations about the place of multiethnic literature both inside and outside the academy

Realism in the Novels of the Harlem Renaissance Theodore O. Francis, 2002 The novelists of the Harlem Renaissance began writing at a point in America's literary history when the romantic tradition was being set aside for the gutsy truth telling of realist literature Modern criticism seems to take the flowery nineteenth century prose found in the works of Chesnut Dunbar Du Bois and others as an indication that they were writing in the romantic style This is understandable but flawed Almost all of the stories written during the Renaissance contained references to slavery or to Post Reconstructionist violence For that reason few stories stemming from this period and written by African Americans can be said to be romantic
