Making Meaning of Loss Richard L. Hayes, 2022-10-31 Making Meaning of Loss Change and Challenge Across the Lifespan is about how change brings loss to our lives how we make meaning of loss and how our experience with loss directs our encounters with loss in the future Each loss challenges us in this way to rethink our world view to ask who we have become and to reinvent ourselves anew Taking a lifespan approach Hayes examines how we make sense of the losses that change brings in each period of our lives and how the way in which we meet the challenge that each loss brings directs our encounters with loss in the future In addition he provides suggestions for how earlier losses can become fruitful allies in encounters with change in the present and how caregivers can help others to make meaning of the loss in their lives Above all this book is about how caregivers can help others learn from the losses in their lives and to recognize what part of the past to bring along into the present in constructing a more reliable self for meeting the challenges of an uncertain future

Applied Mindfulness Victor G. Carrión, M.D., John Rettger, Ph.D., 2019-02-11 Applied Mindfulness Approaches in Mental Health for Children and Adolescents starts from the premise that mental health clinicians must have their own mindfulness practice before teaching the tenets and techniques of mindfulness to others including young people To that end the book offers readers clear instructions on how to first practice mindfulness in their own lives and then extend their personal practice outward to others Once this knowledge is internalized the clinician can focus on mindfulness in terms of its application to specific clinical diagnoses such as anxiety and depression attention deficit hyperactivity disorder and substance abuse Because many mental health professionals work in multiple settings such as in schools in clinics and online the contributors representing a wide range of creative and authoritative voices explain how to skillfully tailor mindfulness interventions for effective application across diverse contexts Drs Carrion and Rettger as Director of the Stanford Early Life Stress and Pediatric Anxiety Program SELSPAP and Director of SELSPAP's Mindfulness Program respectively have been engaged in ongoing community based work delivering mindfulness and yoga programming to underserved youth and their helpers This expertise is evident in their eloquent yet down to earth editing The volume offers clinicians everything they need to begin their mindfulness journey including the following

- Introductory knowledge on how to get started with a meditation practice
- Specific mindfulness scripts are provided throughout the book to foster development of the reader's own practice
- In addition there are audio practices and clear written descriptions of practices to offer support for those learning to meditate
- internalize mindfulness practices and then adapt these skills for clinical practice
- A developmental and ecological approach to implementing mindfulness
- The book offers insight into integrating mindfulness across many settings platforms and applications and includes chapters on mindfulness online at home and in school as well as chapters on incorporating nature into mindfulness practice and the relationship between mindfulness and creativity
- Material on specific clinical populations including immigrant youth and incarcerated youth
- A special chapter is devoted to trauma informed yoga which has been shown to be an effective therapeutic intervention for youth who have been incarcerated
- Comprehensive information on the current state of youth mindfulness research which prepares readers to discuss these topics knowledgeably with colleagues and patients
- Like ripples in water the benefits of mindfulness spread outward from clinicians to patients families schools and communities

Applied Mindfulness Approaches in Mental Health for Children and Adolescents is the first step toward stress reduction peace and compassion for a new generation
