Sosoclean In Just Two Hours A Week:

So clean Brian Lewis, 2017-10-03 This book is an unorthodox biography of William Hesketh Lever 1st Lord Leverhulme 1851 1925 the founder of the Lever Brothers Sunlight Soap empire Unlike previous biographies which have focused on the man s life story and eccentricities or just considered one aspect of his career So clean places him squarely in his social and cultural context and is fully informed by recent historical scholarship Much more than a warts and all biography the book uses Lever as an entry point for contextualized and comparative essays on the history of advertising on factory paternalism town planning the Garden City movement and their ramifications across the twentieth century and on colonialism and forced labour in the Belgian Congo and the South Pacific It concludes with a discussion of his extraordinary attempt in his final years to transform crofting and fishing in the Outer Hebrides Written in an engaging and accessible style So Clean will appeal to academics and students working in business social cultural and imperial history Verity's Sunset Brett Galen, 2020-01-01 John Tyson is the yearbook photographer at his school but he continues to wonder if anyone sees the guy behind the camera Signing up for an environmental workshop during Spring Break he meets a girl named Verity with a zest for life and a mission to find the perfect sunset As their friendship deepens a dark secret is revealed Will her secret be enough to keep them apart or will they be strong enough together to find Verity s Sunset The Weekly Market Growers Journal , 1909 The Presbyterian , 1904 Ethel Rosenberg Anne Sebba, 2025-09-23 New York Times bestselling author Anne Sebba s moving biography of Ethel Rosenberg the wife and mother whose execution for espionage related crimes defined the Cold War and horrified the world In June 1953 Julius and Ethel Rosenberg a couple with two young sons were led separately from their prison cells on Death Row and electrocuted moments apart Both had been convicted of conspiracy to commit espionage for the Soviet Union despite the fact that the US government was aware that the evidence against Ethel was shaky at best and based on the perjury of her own brother This book is the first to focus on one half of that couple in more than thirty years and much new evidence has surfaced since then Ethel was a bright girl who might have fulfilled her personal dream of becoming an opera singer but instead found herself struggling with the social mores of the 1950 s She longed to be a good wife and perfect mother while battling the political paranoia of the McCarthy era anti-Semitism misogyny and a mother who never valued her Because of her profound love for and loyalty to her husband she refused to incriminate him despite government pressure on her to do so Instead she courageously faced the death penalty for a crime she hadn t committed orphaning her children Seventy years after her trial this is the first time Ethel s story has been told with the full use of the dramatic and tragic prison letters she exchanged with her husband her lawyer and her psychotherapist over a three year period two of them in solitary confinement Hers is the resonant story of what happens when a government motivated by fear tramples on the rights of its citizens Woman's Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church , 1920 Motor Age , 1918 Gas World , 1921 Weekly Market Growers Journal , 1908 The Suburban Alexander
