Xiao-Su Yi, Shanyi Du, Litong Zhang, 2017-11-02 This book is the first of two volumes providing comprehensive coverage of the fundamental knowledge and technology of composite materials. It covers a variety of design, fabrication and characterization methods as applied to composite materials, particularly focusing on the fiber reinforcement mechanism and related examples. It is ideal for graduate students, researchers and professionals in the fields of Materials Science and Engineering and Mechanical Engineering. Aeronautical Engineering, 1929 Composite Materials Luigi Nicolais, Michele Meo, Eva Milella, 2011-05-18

Composite Materials presents recent developments and state of the art achievements in the science and technology of composites. It identifies and discusses key and emerging issues for future progress in the multidisciplinary field of composites. By bringing together leading experts and promising innovators from research institutions and academia, Composite Materials highlights unresolved issues and identifies opportunities for long term research needs to provide the reader with a vision for the future in various fields of application of composite materials. A few of the many future directions highlighted in the book are increasingly multifunctional properties, complex hybrid and nanoreinforced materials and tailoring in multiple dimensions and directions. The wider areas covered include but are not limited to the following: biomedical engineering, civil engineering, aerospace engineering, automotive engineering and naval engineering. Composite Materials is designed to increase the reader's understanding of the state of the art of composite materials in a variety of industrial sectors and to explore future needs and opportunities. It will therefore be of use to professionals working in the composites industry, research centers and academia who already have a graduate level knowledge of composite materials.

Journal of the Society of Automotive Engineers, 1927 Vols 30-54, 1932-46 issued in 2 separately pagged sections: General editorial section and a Transactions section.
