I, You, and the Word "God" Sarah Zhang, 2016-11-03 I You and the Word God introduces the approach of lyrical ethics inspired by Emmanuel Levinas's ethical phenomenological philosophy Through the optics of lyrical ethics the reader discovers how the ancient erotic poems of the Song of Songs bear ethical and theological significance for contemporary readers Levinas's intertwined concepts oneself qua sensibility otherness perceived through responsibility and transcendence embodied in one's love for the other reveal themselves as lyrical colors woven into the fabric of Song 4 1 7 5 2 8 and 8 6 More importantly Levinas's understanding that poetic language breaks the tautology of logocentric discourse and gestures to the outside of consciousness provides the theoretical ground for the listener to solicit meaningfulness from the Song Through this lyrical reading of the selected poetic units the book demonstrates that the traditional interpretive methods of representative description narrative paraphrase and thematic distillation fail to encounter the otherness of poetry In contrast lyrical ethics pays attention to that which transcends consciousness the awakening of the reader's subjectivity the saying underlying the said the sound of the sense and the invisibility of the visible The Song so caressed reveals in human love the purposelessly purposive encounter with God wide audience for this new literary language Dhavan and Pauwels re examine the long dominant mischaracterization of Urdu as an elite language of South Asian Muslims by analysing the poetic biographies of Vali Dakhani and his contemporaries Fa iz Abru and Hatim The authors reveal how selective attention to a handful of poets and rarefied courtly texts obscured the much more diverse roots of an important vernacular tradition thereby reconstructing a lost literary network of speakers poets and participants in Urdu s past

Neither Belief nor Unbelief Sona Grigoryan,2022-12-19 The book re examines the religious thought and receptions of the Syrian poet Ab l Al al Ma arr d 1057 and one of his best known works Luz m m l yalzam The Self Imposed Unnecessity a collection of poems which although widely studied needs a thorough re evaluation regarding matters of un belief Given the contradictory nature of al Ma arr s oeuvre and Luz m in particular there have been two major trends in assessing al Ma arr s religious thought in modern scholarship One presented al Ma arr as an unbeliever and a freethinker arguing that through contradictions he practiced taq ya i e dissimulation in order to avoid persecution The other often apologetically presented al Ma arr as a sincere Muslim This study proposes that the notion of ambivalence is a more appropriate analytical tool to apply to the reading of Luz m specifically in matters of belief This ambivalence is directly conditioned by the historical and intellectual circumstances al Ma arr lived in and he intentionally left it unsolved and intense as a robust stance against claims of certainty Going beyond reductive interpretations the notion of ambivalence allows for an integrative paradigm in dealing with contradictions and dissonance
