Struggle For Justice To Dalit Christians:

Struggle for Justice to Dalit Christians Brojendra Nath Banerjee, 1997 Relates to Christians belonging to economically backward and socially underprivileged classes in India Dalit Theology and Dalit Liberation Peniel Rajkumar, 2016-05-13 In fulfilling the long awaited need for a constructive and critical rethinking of Dalit theology this book offers and explores the synoptic healing stories as a relevant biblical paradigm for Dalit theology in order to help redress the lacuna between Dalit theology and the social practice of the Indian Church Peniel Rajkumar's starting point is that the growing influence of Dalit theology in academic circles is incompatible with the praxis of the Indian Church which continues to be passive in its attitude towards the oppression of the Dalits both within and outside the Church The theological reasons for this lacuna between Dalit theology and the Church's praxis Rajkumar suggests lie in the content of Dalit theology especially the biblical paradigms explored which do not offer adequate scope for engagement in praxis World Christianity and Interfaith Relations Richard F. Young, 2022 World Christianity and Interfaith Relations makes the case that religion is not partitioned off from the secular in the Global South the way it is in the Global North Rather religion is deeply integrated into the lives of those in the Global South even though secularism officially predominates The People and the People of God Hans Ucko, 2002 The Jewish Christian dialogue continues to be a challenge for Christian theology calling for a rethinking of Christian hermeneutics Hans Ucko widens the arena for Jewish Christian dialogue and proposes a constructive interaction between contextual theologies and Jewish Christian dialogue Minjung theology from South Korea and Dalit theology from India have creatively worked with the concepts people peoplehood and People of God The Jewish Christian dialogue has likewise delved into the question of People of God An encounter between these two worlds might be mutually enriching and challenging Religion, Community and Development Gurpreet Mahajan, Surinder S. Jodhka, 2010-06-02 Papers presented at a seminar organized at Jawaharlal Nehru University on Mar 2007 The Dalit Christians John C. B. Webster, 1994 Study of Christians belonging to economically backward and socially underprivileged classes in India Put Away Your Sword Michael L. Budde, 2024-03-11 What does it mean to follow the Prince of Peace in a world plagued by war violence and killing Can the foundational convictions of Christianity and the experiences of Christians around the world contribute to a more adequate practice of the faith in contemporary times on matters of war violence and peacemaking This volume addresses these important questions with contributions from Christian scholars and practitioners from across the Majority World including El Salvador Brazil Kenya and the Philippines and from the United States and Europe They include proponents of Christian pacifism and just war theory advocates for varieties of just peacemaking frameworks and people pursuing slow modest steps toward reconciling enemies without the use of overarching theoretical frameworks What holds them together is a sense that the world and the church would benefit from a robust and gospel based commitment to nonviolence as an alternative to lethal business as usual in addressing conflicts great and small The topics they consider include constructive aspects of a Christian theology of nonviolence case studies of gospel nonviolence and pastoral work from violent conflicts around the world women as victims of violence and makers of peace and theopolitical questions of just war armed intervention and Christian nonviolence Local Dalit Christian History George Oommen, John C. B. Webster, 2002 Contributed articles with reference to India Children of the Waters of Meribah Allan Boesak, 2019-10-30 In the decades since Black liberation theology burst onto the scene it has turned the world of church society and academia upside down It has changed lives and ways of thinking as well But now there is a question What lessons has Black theology not learned as times have changed In this expansion of the 2017 Yale Divinity School Beecher Lectures Allan Boesak explores this question If Black liberation theology had taken the issues discussed in these pages much more seriously struggled with them much more intensely thoroughly and honestly would it have been in a better position to help oppressed black people in Africa the United States and oppressed communities everywhere as they have faced the challenges of the last twenty five years In a critical self critical engagement with feminist and especially African feminist theologians in a trans disciplinary conversation Allan Boesak as Black liberation theologian from the Global South offers tentative but intriguing responses to the vital questions facing Black liberation theology today particularly those questions raised by the women Christians in the Twenty-First Century George D. Chryssides, Margaret Z. Wilkins, 2014-09-11 Christians in the Twenty First Century examines Christianity as it is understood and practised both by active followers and those who regard themselves as Christian The book opens with an examination of key Christian concepts the Bible the Creeds the Church and the sacraments and the major traditions of Roman Catholicism Eastern Orthodoxy and Protestantism as well as more recent movements The book continues with an analysis of the challenges presented by the rise of science new approaches to biblical scholarship the rise of fundamentalist movements the ordination of women secularization the interfaith movement and the impact of the electronic revolution
