Turning High-Poverty Schools into High-Performing Schools William H. Parrett, Kathleen M. Budge, 2020-04-28 Schools across the United States and Canada are disrupting the adverse effects of poverty and supporting students in ways that enable them to succeed in school and in life In this second edition Parrett and Budge show you how your school can achieve similar results Expanding on their original framework s still critical concepts of actions and school culture they incorporate new insights for addressing equity trauma and social emotional learning These fresh perspectives combine with lessons learned from 12 additional high poverty high performing schools to form the updated and enhanced Framework for Collective Action Emphasizing students social emotional and academic learning as the hub for all action in high performing high poverty schools the authors describe how educators can work within the expanded Framework to address the needs of all students but particularly those who live in poverty Equipped with the Framework and a plethora of tools to build collective efficacy self assessments high leverage questions action advice and more school and district leaders as well as teachers teacher leaders instructional coaches and other staff can close persistent opportunity gaps and reverse longstanding patterns of low achievement

The Power of Voice in Schools Russ Quaglia, Kristine Fox, Lisa Lande, Deborah Young, 2020-05-26 For nearly four decades Russ Quaglia has been laying the groundwork to inform reform and transform schools through student voice That deep commitment is reflected in this inspirational book Quaglia and his coauthors at the Quaglia Institute for School Voice there is only us To that end The Power of Voice in Schools offers a way forward that can be used in any school and Addresses the importance of everyone s voice in the school community Articulates the lessons learned from listening to these voices over the past decade Suggests concrete practical strategies for combined teams of students teachers parents and administrators to make a difference together This book reflects the dream of a true partnership in listening learning and leading together When the potential of voice is fully realized schools will look and feel different Cooperation will replace competition and conflict collaboration will replace isolation and confidence will replace insecurity Most important the entire school community will work in partnership with one another for the well being of students and teachers Role Reversal Mark Barnes,2013-02-09 Want to make your students more responsible for their own learning Want to create an academic environment in which students thrive and develop a genuine thirst for knowledge Want to improve your students standardized test results but avoid a teach to the test mentality that throttles creativity and freedom In this book Mark Barnes introduces and outlines the Results Only Learning Environment a place that embraces the final result of learning rather than the traditional methods for arriving at that result A results only classroom is rich with individual and cooperative learning activities that help students demonstrate mastery learning on their own terms without being constrained by standards and pedagogy By embracing results only learning you will be able to transform your classroom into a bustling community of learners in which Students collaborate daily on a number of long term ongoing projects Students receive constant narrative feedback Yearlong projects target learning outcomes more meaningfully than worksheets homework tests and quizzes Freedom and independence are valued over punitive points percentages and letter grades Students manage themselves and all but eliminate the need for traditional classroom management Learn how your students can take charge of their own achievement in an enjoyable project based workshop setting that challenges them with real world learning scenarios and helps them attain uncommonly excellent results Inspiring Leadership in Teens Ric Stuecker,2010 Presents a comprehensive approach to developing student leadership It serves as a field guide for conducting leadership classes in schools camps and retreats By participating in group leadership activities and building on their newly learned skills students gain the confidence needed to become leaders in school activities athletic programmes and clubs Cultivating Kindness in School Ric Stuecker,2004 Offers guidance in making the school a safe environment in which students are motivated to excel and it teaches students the skills they need to respect themselves others and the learning space Leadership for a world that does not yet exist: Education with no limits Steve and Paula Kenning,2019-12-13 An increasing societal trend is the belief that the 21st century requires a rethink of the education system Change is happening fast and our students are growing up in a world where jobs are not certain or guaranteed The purpose of education is to prepare students for a world we can t envisage so when they are stuck they choose to think instead of remember Alongside this there is also a need for education systems to impart higher level skills aligned with the demands of growing economies where many jobs are being automated and skill sets are changing fast Are professionals employers and educational institutions ready for the challenge of developing the new skills this future will demand This book has evolved out of many years of implementing innovation in education it has been written because we believe we have something to say which might inspire support or encourage other educationalists to take action to align the education our schools deliver with the needs of the 21st century Journal of
