The Lure Of Divine Love Human Experience And Christian Faith In A Process Perspective:

The Lure of Divine Love Norman Pittenger, 1979-01-01 The Lure of Divine Love William Norman

Pittenger, 1979-01-01 Preface This preface details the lectures and writings of Norman Pittenger which make up the background of this book Chapter 1 A New Perspective Process thought makes sense of the kind of world that modern scientific inquiry has disclosed while at the same time taking seriously the depths of human experience with which the humanities the religious outlook and the aesthetic enterprise Chapter 2 The Humanities and the Arts Despite lending itself to material scientific and human understanding process studies has room for the rich resources humanity finds in literature music and art Chapter 3 The Scientific Enterprise Process thought has filled the gap that mechanistic determinism could not fill A unitary interpretation of existence human and natural can make sense of and give sense to all the fields of human inquiry and human enjoyment Chapter 4 Educational Principles Dr Pittenger addresses education from a process perspective and gives nine implications concerning its importance He concludes that education is to be considered as a matter of imaginative and aesthetic response to the human situation and to whatever is supremely worshipful in the cosmos that is to what religion calls God Chapter 5 Moral Implications Dr Pittenger believes that if there is an absolute that absolute is nothing other than love itself with its corollary in the imperative that we should live in grow in express and share love Chapter 6 Human Sexuality There is a mysterious side to human sexuality and the author makes some suggestions about this from the side of Christian faith and Christian morality in terms of process thought Chapter 7 The Religious Understanding Since countless masses of humankind have enjoyed some kind of contact with reality greater than humankind or nature and since process generalizations about how things go in the world have developed new ways of thinking about God are needed Chapter 8 Christian Faith in God Christianity is a faith not simply an ordered system of ideas or a behavior that imitates the earthly life and teach of a historical figure but a commitment of men and women to the supremely worshipful reality called God Chapter 9 The Self Expressive Activity of God and the Meaning of Jesus Christ What is revealed is not compulsion but persuasion love not force is at the heart of the creative process of the universe This is what gives Jesus his central place and role his continuing impact on successive generations of men and women Chapter 10 The Spirit and the Divine Triunity Somehow in God the basic truth of personality is combined with the equally basic truth of sociality and this has implications for our view of human nature The triunity of God can serve as a symbol offering a hint or intimation into the mystery of God as God is active in the world and our process conceptuality has made it clear that God is the divine activity Chapter 11 The Person in Society Dr Pittenger gives eight affirmations about human nature from a process perspective Humans 1 Are dependent upon God 2 Have potentialities 3 Are social 4 Are compound organisms 5 Are sexual 6 Are unable to fulfill proper achievement 7 Know their possibilities 8 Find total fulfillment only in God Chapter 12 The Christian Church and the Sacramental Action of the Church New Testament Christians were not Christians apart from the fellowship the church Dr

Pittenger's process approach to the church is more aesthetic than ethical. He defends its sacraments and its rituals. Chapter 13: Destiny and Resurrection. God is the divine creative love epitomized in Jesus, and adding to this God's reception of the good accomplished by the free decisions of humankind, we have a portrayal of human destiny and the understanding of the true significance of resurrection. Chapter 14: Conclusion. Dr. Pittenger concludes with a plea that our new situation requires us to think again to work through once more the things that are both human and Christian.

A Process Spirituality Sheri D. Kling, 2020-07-08

American culture is in a state of critical fragmentation. The author argues that we will solve neither the ecological crisis nor our social estrangement from each other until we transform our perception of life as embodied and interconnected and rediscover what is sacred through transformative lived experiences of wholeness. Using an embodied theological framework supported by comparative hermeneutical and constructive methodologies, A Process Spirituality synthesizes theoretical, empirical, and practical resources to construct a hopeful and holistic understanding of God, the world, and the self. Interweaving Alfred North Whitehead's vision of a relational cosmos with Carl Gustav Jung's integrated relational psyche and a powerful spiritual praxis of dream work, the book creates a generative matrix through which to perceive a God-world reality characterized by value, relationality, and transformation in which individuals matter, belong, and can experience positive change. Such a Christian and transreligious vision of hope offers individuals the possibility and capacity to move from a state of fragmentation to one of psycho-spiritual wholeness and flourishing.

Actology Malcolm Torry, 2020-07-08

Two streams run through the Western philosophical stream: one characterized by Being (beings, the unchanging, the static, and the unitary) and the other by Action (actions, the changing, the dynamic, and the diverse). The former might be represented by Parmenides, Plato, and much of what followed; the latter by Heraclitus and by rather less of what followed. The book explores the Action stream as it wound its way through history through Heraclitus, Plato, Aristotle, Hegel, Maurice Blondel, Henri Bergson, Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, process philosophy, and theology. Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy, Ludwig Wittgenstein, and John Boys Smith. The journey enables us to create the beginnings of an actology, a way of seeing ourselves, the universe, and God in terms of actions in patterns rather than as beings that change. Such an actology offers a complete alternative narrative far more in tune with the diverse and rapidly changing world in which we live than the ontology that has shaped philosophy, theology, and much else for the past two thousand years.

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01

In this first of three volumes, Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider, longer running tradition than has been thought. The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century, motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism/atheism. It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry, its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience, its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life, and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people. Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Systematic Theology, Volume 1, Fourth Edition James Leo Garrett Jr., 2014-09-14 Rivals the major systematic theologies of this century Baptist History and Heritage Journal July 1996 One of the characteristics of Garrett's system that needs especially to be noted is its balanced judicious and nearly invariably objective presentation of materials While holding true to the teachings of his own Baptist faith Garrett so carefully and judiciously presents alternatives that teachers and students from other confessional and denominational positions will find his work instructive Consensus 1997 If one is searching for an extensive exposition of the biblical foundations and historical developments of the various loci of systematic theology there is no more complete presentation in a relatively short work than this Pastors will especially find this feature to be a real help in teaching theology It is an indispensable contribution to the task of systematic theology Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society September 1999 Many students and pastors will find all they need here and will in addition be helped to relate their knowledge to recent developments in the theological world The Churchman A Journal of Anglican Theology 1991 A gold mine of helpful material The Christian Century May 29 June 5 1991 No book that I know is more loaded with biblical and theological facts than this one The prodigious research that must have gone into the preparation of this volume is truly mind boggling Faith and Mission Fall 1991 Garrett has provided a massive and scholarly systematic theology from a thoroughly conservative and comprehensive viewpoint The work is well documented in both biblical and historical scholarship and will prove to be a classic William Hendrickson Southern Baptist Theological Seminary One of the most comprehensive concise books of its type available it should receive wide use in the classroom and in the study Robert H Culpepper Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

Minding Creation Joanna Leidenhag, 2020-12-10 Are humans the only creatures that can appreciate God's creation What if consciousness is spread more widely across all things This volume examines panpsychism through the lens of Christian doctrine Minding Creation is the first substantial examination of what a panpsychist theory of consciousness implies for key theological debates concerning God's presence and action evolution and the origin of the soul human uniqueness and the environmental crisis Joanna Leidenhag develops a theological panpsychism that is based on an exceptionally wide range of scholarship Minding Creation draws on the theologies of historical figures such as Augustine of Hippo Gottfried von Leibniz and others in order to create a critical and constructive conversation with contemporary analytic philosophers of mind such as Thomas Nagel Galen Strawson and David J Chalmers Leidenhag also discusses key concepts and issues such as emergence theory divine action and ecology She concludes that God created a universe from nothing which is filled with indwelling powers sacramental value and intrinsic experience This is a creation in which the Holy Spirit is internally present at every point a creation that worships God and a creation that human beings must protect and lead in praise God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human's infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice Broken Hallelujah Darren J. N. Middleton, 2007-01-01 Marking the fiftieth anniversary of Kazantzakis's death author Darren J N Middleton looks back on Kazantzakis's life and literary art to suggest that contrary to popular belief Kazantzakis and his views actually comport with the ideals of Christianity The Spirit of American Liberal Theology Gary Dorrien, 2023-09-05 The Spirit of American Liberal Theology is an interpretation of the entire U S American tradition of liberal theology A highly condensed and far more accessible summary of Gary Dorrien's three volume trilogy The Making of American Liberal Theology Westminster John Knox Press 2001 2003 and 2006 Dorrien here presses the argument that the most abundant diverse and persistent tradition of liberal theology is the one that blossomed in the United States and is still refashioning itself While discussions of English and German liberalism persist new material includes expanded treatment of the Black social gospel the Universalists' developments into early 2020s and a robust expression of the author's post Hegelian liberal liberationist perspective Science Of Love Thomas Oord, Thomas Jay Oord, 2004-09 Analyses the fundamentals of love the basic characteristics of existence that must be present for love to be expressed concluding with the important argument that progress can be made when religion and science work together to both understand and promote love

New World, New Church? Hannah Steele, 2017-11-30 The emerging church movement has quickly become one of the fastest growing ecclesiological phenomena in the west today But there is still a debate to be had about how the church understands its identity and purpose within postmodern culture Offering an assessment of the impact of the emerging church upon the church in the West and examining the thinking of the movement's leading proponents including Brian McLaren and Rob Bell New World New Church affirms what is good and insightful in the emerging church and offers a robust critical evaluation of its theological revisions

God's Wounds Jeff B Pool, 2011-07-28 God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume II Evil and Divine Suffering is the second of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of the symbol those implicit attestations that permit the possibility of divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation The author investigates two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies normally attest 1 divine grief or suffering due to human sin or betrayal by the beloved human and 2 divine self sacrifice or suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery so as to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation

The Great Companions JOSHUA DAVID. REICHARD, 2011-11-15 There is perhaps no greater theological dilemma than the interaction and relationship between God and humanity Process Relational theology proposes an alternative conception of the problem and ultimately provides practical applications of theological ideas for transforming the church and society The Process Relational position is that God acts in the world through persuasion rather than coercion God has the persuasive power to influence human beings toward creative transformation God genuinely cares about what happens in the world because what happens in the world genuinely affects God Together God and humanity are the great companions cooperating to creatively transform the world

Providence and Prayer Terrance L. Tiessen, 2009-09-20 From the view that God does not intervene in the world to the view that God is the only effective agent in the working of his will Terrance Tiessen identifies ten views of providence and adds his own

The Word as True Myth Gary J. Dorrien, 1997-01-01 Gary Dorrien follows the threads of theology through the twentieth century examining how Christians have reconciled their myth filled religious beliefs within a world secularized by Enlightenment criticism and science To understand how religion keeps its place in Christians lives Dorrien writes we must explore how modern theologians have answered the question of myth in today's Christianity Dorrien's narrative walks readers through modern theology stopping with each of the major thinkers along the way to see how they dealt with the issue of modern Christian mythology Ultimately he offers his own new neo orthodoxy a theology of Word and Spirit that is pluralistic and affirms the mythical character of the gospel while holding fast to the Gospels myth negating condemnation of idolatry and their focus on history Obstacles to Divine Revelation Rolfe King,2009-01-22 A fascinating philosophical approach to the concept of divine revelation exploring the implications this theory may have for generating a new concept of religious truth The New Review of Books and Religion ,1979 Reason in the Service of Faith Paul Helm,2023-03-01 Paul Helm is a distinguished philosopher with particular interests in the philosophy of religion His work covers some of the most important aspects of the field as it has developed in the last thirty years with particular contributions to metaphysics religious epistemology and philosophical theology In celebration of Helm s life s work Reason in the Service of Faith brings together a range of his essays which reflect these central concerns of his thought Over thirty of Helm s selected essays and four unpublished articles are gathered into five parts Metaphilosophical Issues Action Change and Personal Identity Epistemology God and Creation Providence and Prayer The volume is prefaced with a short editorial introduction and ends with an extensive bibliography of Helm s published works Demonstrating the important connection between Helm s theological and philosophical interests across his body of work this collection is a remarkable resource for scholars of religion philosophy and theology
