Finally in Part Three Purchasing Re creation Nenzi looks at the intersection between recreational travel and the rising commercial economy which allowed visitors to appropriate landscapes through new means monetary transactions acquisition of tangible icons or other forms of physical interaction Poetry and Painting in Song China Alfreda Murck, 2020-10-26

Throughout the history of imperial China the educated elite used various means to criticize government policies and actions. During the Song dynasty 960 1278 some members of this elite found an elegant and subtle means of dissent landscape painting. By examining literary archetypes the titles of paintings contemporary inscriptions and the historical context Alfreda Murck shows that certain paintings expressed strong political opinions some transparent others deliberately concealed. She argues that the coding of messages in seemingly innocuous paintings was an important factor in the growing respect for painting among the educated elite and that the capacity of painting's systems of reference to allow scholars to express dissent with impunity contributed to the art's vitality and longevity Ideas and Art in Asian Civilizations Kenneth R. Stunkel, 2015-05-11

The book includes both classic readings and the latest cutting edge research from some of the most respected experts writing in the field. Beyond the Great Wave James King,2010 The Japanese landscape print has had a tremendous influence on Western art of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries In Japan and in the West it is often seen as the dominant form in Ukiyo e pictures from the floating world And yet for all its importance it is a genre whose history has never been written Beyond The Great Wave is a survey or overview for all those interested in discovering the inner dynamics of one of art history's most remarkable achievements. However, it is also a quest narrative in which landscapes and notions of Japan as a homeland are intertwined and interconnected. Although there has never been a book-length study of the Japanese landscape print in either Japanese or English, a great deal has been written about the two giants of the genre, Hokusai and Hiroshige. From what traditions did these two nineteenth-century artists emerge? Who were their predecessors? What influence, if any, did they have on other Ukiyo-e artists? Can their influence be seen in the shin hanga and saku hanga artists of the twentieth century? This book addresses these issues but it also looks at a number of other factors such as the growth of tourism in nineteenth-century Japan, necessary for understanding this genre.

Geo-Narratives of a Filial Son Elizabeth Kindall, 2020-05-11. Huang Xiangjian, a mid-seventeenth-century member of the Suzhou local elite, journeyed on foot to southwest China and recorded its sublime scenery in site-specific paintings. Elizabeth Kindall's innovative analysis of the visual experiences and social functions Huang conveyed through his oeuvre reveals an unrecognized tradition of site paintings here labeled geo narratives that recount specific journeys and create meaning in the paintings. Kindall shows how Huang created these geo narratives by drawing upon the Suzhou place painting tradition as well as the encoded experiences of southwestern sites discussed in historical gazetteers and personal travel records and the geography of the sites themselves. Ultimately, these works were intended to create personas and fulfill specific social purposes among the educated class during the Ming-Qing transition. Some of Huang's paintings of the southwest, together with his travel records, became part of a campaign to attain the socially generated title of Filial Son, whereas others served private functions. This definitive study elucidates the context for Huang Xiangjian's painting and identifies geo narrative as a distinct landscape painting tradition lauded for its naturalistic immediacy experiential topography and dramatic narratives of moral persuasion class identification and biographical commemoration
