practitioners in the field of psychology and social sciences interested in the use of new psychological theories and methodologies in life span research

Dutch Racism Philomena Essed, Isabel Hoving, 2014-03-01 Dutch Racism is the first comprehensive study of its kind The approach is unique not comparative but relational in unraveling the legacy of racism in the Netherlands and the former colonies Authors contribute to identifying the complex ways in which racism operates in and beyond the national borders shaped by European and global influences and intersecting with other systems of domination Contrary to common sense beliefs it appears that old fashioned biological notions of race never disappeared At the same time the Netherlands echoes if not leads a wider European trend where offensive statements about Muslims are an everyday phenomenon Dutch Racism challenges readers to question what happens when the moral rejection of racism loses ground The volume captures the layered nature of Dutch racism through a plurality of registers methods and disciplinary approaches from sociology and history to literary analysis art history and psychoanalysis all different elements competing for relevance truth value and explanatory power This range of voices and visions offers illuminating insights in the two closely related questions that organize this book what factors contribute to the complexity of Dutch racism And why is the concept of racism so intensely contested The volume will speak to audiences across the humanities and social sciences and can be used as textbook in undergraduate as well as graduate courses Philomena Essed is professor of Critical Race Gender and Leadership studies Antioch University USA PhD in Leadership and Change Program Her books and edited volumes include Everyday Racism Understanding Everyday Racism Race Critical Theories A Companion to Gender Studies outstanding 2005 CHOICE award and Clones Fakes and Posthumans Cultures of Replication Isabel Hoving is diversity officer at the Leiden University and affiliated with the Department of Film and Literary Studies of Leiden University Her books include In Praise of New Travellers Veranderingen van het alledaagse and several other volumes on migration Caribbean literatures African literature and art In addition to her academic work she is an awarded youth writer

The Anglo-Boer War 1899-1902: 963 Days Pieter G Cloete, 2021-12-01 Since the start of the Anglo Boer War today 120 years ago thousands of publications written or typed reports and other creations have been produced to narrate the war events express opinions on its origins causes course results and legacy and on participants in the struggle This process is ongoing since the debate amongst both professional historians and interested amateurs on exactly what happened and why is still raging and new information on the war still crops up The history of the Anglo Boer War is truly a neverending discourse As the author of a number of books on the war I have consulted hundreds of both published and unpublished sources Some were of limited value but a small percentage of the published books were of such high value that they formed part of a small stack of books that found a permanent home on my desktop while I was in the writing process Pieter Cloete's The Anglo Boer War A Chronology both the original English version and the enlarged Afrikaans version published in 2010 was always part of that stack It is to me a privilege to write a foreword for the user friendly and meticulously researched book It not only contains a wealth of information but a detailed source list and an extensive index There are few if any more helpful reference books on the war and thus represents an essential resource to anyone with a more than superficial interest in the Anglo Boer War DR JACKIE GROBLER Historian and author Recently retired after 40 years at the Department of Historical and Heritage Studies The University of Pretoria

Boxed set: The Anglo-Boer War 963 Days / The Anglo-Boer War Maps, Stats & Facts Pieter G Cloete,2021-12-01 This bundle e book volume contains both The Anglo Boer War and the accompanying Maps Stats Facts volume from Pieter G Cloete

Postcolonialism Robert J. C. Young,2016-10-12 This seminal work now available in a 15th anniversary edition with a new preface is a thorough introduction to the historical and theoretical origins of postcolonial theory Provides a clearly written and wide ranging account of postcolonialism empire imperialism and colonialism written by one of the leading scholars on the topic Details the history of anti colonial movements and their leaders around the world from Europe and Latin America to Africa and Asia Analyzes the ways in which freedom struggles contributed to postcolonial discourse by producing fundamental ideas about the relationship between non western and western societies and cultures Offers an engaging yet accessible style that will appeal to scholars as well as introductory students

Body of Power, Spirit of Resistance Jean Comaroff,2013-11-15 In this sophisticated study of power and resistance Jean Comaroff analyzes the changing predicament of the Barolong boo Ratshidi a people on the margins of the South African state Like others on the fringes of the modern world system the Tshidi struggle to construct a viable order of signs and practices through which they act upon the forces that engulf them Their dissenting Churches of Zion have provided an effective medium for reconstructing a sense of history and identity one that protests the terms of colonial and post colonial society and culture

The Anglo-Boer War (1899-1902): White man's war, black man's war, traumatic war André Wessels,2010-09-01 Based on many years of research with regard to the Anglo Boer War this book is essential reading for anyone who would like to know more about the most devastating conflict that has thus far been waged between white people in Southern Africa However with due course this war also involved more and more black brown and to some extent Asian people

Scouting for Boys Robert Baden-Powell,2024-05-08 A Scout is a Friend to all An amalgam of imperial myth borrowed tips on health and hygiene and object lessons in woodcraft the 1908 text of Robert Baden Powell's Scouting for Boys is the original blueprint and self instructor of the Boy Scout Movement One of the all time bestsellers in the English speaking world this primer of yarns and pictures constitutes probably the most influential manual for youth ever published Yet the book is at the same time a roughly composed hodge podge of jingoist lore and tracker legend padded with lengthy quotations from adventure fiction and Baden Powell s own autobiography and seamed through with the multiple anxieties of its time fears of degeneration concerns about masculinity and self restraint and invasion paranoia Elleke Boehmer s edition of Scouting for Boys reprints the original text and illustrations and her fine introduction investigates a book that has been cited as an authority by militarists and pacifists capitalists and environmentalists alike

ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood,2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka s Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood s study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world

Gender, Race, and the Writing of Empire Paula M. Krebs,1999 All of London exploded on the night of May 18 1900 in the biggest West End party ever seen The mix of media manipulation patriotism and class race and gender politics that produced the spontaneous festivities of Mafeking Night begins this analysis of the cultural politics of late Victorian imperialism Paula M Krebs examines the last of the gentlemen s wars the Boer War of 1899 1902 and the struggles to maintain an imperialist hegemony in a twentieth century world through the war writings of Arthur Conan Doyle Olive Schreiner H Rider Haggard and Rudyard Kipling as well as contemporary journalism propaganda and other forms of public discourse Her feminist analysis of such matters as the sexual honor of the British soldier at war the deaths of thousands of women and children in concentration camps and new concepts of race in South Africa marks this book as a significant contribution to British imperial studies

Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.),2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia's coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in African itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth
