exclaimed this is my share O chief of the descendants of Bharata Then when the beast was carried away by Siva the gods spake to him saying cast not a covetous glance at the property of others disregarding all the righteous rules Then they addressed words of glorification of a pleasing kind to the god Rudra And they satisfied him by offering a sacrifice and paid him suitable honours Thereupon he gave up the beast and went by the path trodden by the gods Thereupon what happened to Rudra learn from me O Yudhishtira Influenced by the dread of Rudra the gods set apart for evermore the best allotment out of all shares such as was fresh and not stale to be appropriated by the god Whosoever performs his ablutions at this spot while reciting this ancient story beholds with his mortal eyes the path that leads to the region of the gods About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
