The Making Of A Mother:

The Making of a Mother Karen Spruill, 1988 The Making of a Mother Valerie Davis Raskin, 2008-12-18 What makes a good mother Are some women just born naturally maternal or do mothers discover that part of themselves once they have a child Now a renowned expert on the subject and herself a mother of three addresses the unspoken worries and fears that accompany motherhood and shares the reassuring message that every mother learns on the job Dr Valerie Davis Raskin has worked with more than four hundred mothers in twenty years of clinical practice and has discovered that mothering is just as developmental as childhood Dr Raskin identifies the nine challenges facing mothers from their child s infancy to young adulthood pivotal moments that put mothers to the test time and again and yet from which they can emerge truly rewarded

IDENTITY How to gain confidence during those overwhelming first months after you ve given birth or adopted but don t yet feel like a mother UNLOVING MOMENTS Every mother s secret guilt learn to accept those not so precious moments when you don t like the child you love so dearly HONORING THE FATHER Tips for helping Dad stop feeling like a third wheel and bond with his child and receive attention from you SEPARATION How to maintain a positive outlook on your child s milestones from the first day of preschool to packing him off to sleepaway camp SETTING LIMITS How to put your foot down even when your child kicks screams or cries IMPERFECT INSTITUTIONS How to cope when your child does not have the best teacher or the most inspiring coach or faces a less than fair grading system REVISED DREAMS Your cute five year old in a pink tutu has no rhythm Your nine year old cannot catch a ball Learn to modify your dreams for your child and follow your child s dreams instead ADVERSITY You can t keep your child in a plastic bubble but you can take a deep breath relax and be there for her when life gets tough SAYING GOODBYE Discover the joys of loving your adult child while not living under the same roof This wonderfully anecdotal engaging and accessible book is nothing less than an essential training manual for mothers of all ages The bottom line Just because motherhood is sometimes difficult confusing intense sleepless and frustrating doesn t mean mothers aren t doing it right

My Mother's Hip Luise Margolies, 2004 Some 400 000 hip fractures occur every year the vast majority among the elderly all too often these fractures are associated with death or severe disability After her mother s double hip fracture Luisa Margolies immersed herself in identifying and coordinating the services and professionals needed to provide critical care for an elderly person She soon realized that the American medical system is ill prepared to deal with the long term care needs of our graying society The heart of My Mother's Hip is taken up with the author s day to day observations as her mother s condition worsened then improved only to worsen again while her father became increasingly anxious and disoriented As both a devoted daughter and a skilled anthropologist Margolies vividly renders her interactions with physicians nurses hospital workers nursing home administrators the Medicare bureaucracy home care providers and her parents In the Lessons chapter that follows each episode she discusses in a broader context the weighty decisions that adult children must make on their parents behalf and the emotional toll their responsibility takes Here

she addresses the complex practical issues that commonly arise in such situations understanding the consequences of hip fracture and its treatment preparing health care proxies and advanced directives enabling elders to remain at home and the heartbreaking dilemma of prolonging life Like many adult children Margolies learned her lessons about eldercare in the midst of crises This book is intended to ease the information gathering and decision making processes for others involved in eldercare International Journal of Religious Education ,1926 The Spymistress Jennifer Chiaverini,2013-10-01

New York Times bestselling author Jennifer Chiaverini is back with another enthralling historical novel set during the Civil War era this time inspired by the life of a true Union woman as true as steel who risked everything by caring for Union prisoners of war and stealing Confederate secrets Born to slave holding aristocracy in Richmond Virginia and educated by Northern Quakers Elizabeth Van Lew was a paradox of her time When her native state seceded in April 1861 Van Lew s convictions compelled her to defy the new Confederate regime Pledging her loyalty to the Lincoln White House her courage would never waver even as her wartime actions threatened not only her reputation but also her life Van Lew s skills in gathering military intelligence were unparalleled She helped to construct the Richmond Underground and orchestrated escapes from the infamous Confederate Libby Prison under the guise of humanitarian aid Her spy ring s reach was vast from clerks in the Confederate War and Navy Departments to the very home of Confederate President Jefferson Davis Although Van Lew was inducted posthumously into the Military Intelligence Hall of Fame the astonishing scope of her achievements has never been widely known In Chiaverini s riveting tale of high stakes espionage a great heroine of the Civil War finally gets her due The Making of a Mother Mary Bradford Clark,2013-07-23 Although raised by a wealthy loving family Mary Bradford Clark didn t know how she could face the rejection of her biological mother When it came to accepting her past she struggled The Making of a Mother explores Mary s journey to embrace her history and move onward to strengthen her relationship with her own daughter This artful memoir beautifully portrays the promise of hope blooming over disappointment Take a closer look at trauma and the path to healing in The Making of a Mother

Short Talks with Young Mothers on the Management of Infants and Young Children Charles Gilmore Kerley,1922 A Year with the Mother-play Andrea Hofer Proudfoot,1902 The Making Of A Mother: A Journey to Being Made Whole Barbara D.

Randolph,2019-07 In this book The Making of a Mother A Journey to Being Made Whole you will read why I could not come for my son and why I could not send a birthday card on his 16th birthday Additionally you will read about the miraculous power of the Holy Spirit bringing restoration healing and deliverance to our lives I can unmistakably say that my being made a mother became my journey to being made whole The Making of a Mom Kimberly Severn,2019 Kimberly Severn felt a strong instinct to be a mother Even amidst the wonder of her first pregnancy she struggled with intimidating complications that took a toll on her body As a successful business woman she was used to being in control but soon learned that motherhood is also defined by the truth that there is very little you can actually control when it comes to creating a family

When Kimberly and her husband decided to adopt their second child they navigated the adoption process willing themselves to maintain hope and enthusiasm through a whirlwind of disappointments and surprises Kimberly tried tirelessly to balance empathy and compassion for their daughter's forceful birth parents with the safety and health of her family Her instinct as a mother would take her from the delivery room to the courtroom constantly looking inward to discover what it really took to be the mom she dreamed of being The Making of a Mom is a memoir of what it means to be a mother It is also a story of inner struggle and discovery as debut author Kimberly Severn explores the joys pains and the depth of understanding she gained as she wondered at every twist and turn Am I mom enough back cover of book The Pacific Reporter ,1919
