The Making of Contemporary Africa Bill Freund, 1984

Kenya's and Zambia's Relations with China 1949-2019

Jodie Yuzhou Sun, 2023 Examines the history of post colonial Kenya's and Zambia's relations with the People's Republic of China from ideological political economic and social perspectives Africa has become a major platform from which to analyse and understand China's growing influence in the global South Yet the impact of their historical relationship has been largely overlooked Through the triangulation of the global Cold War African history and Chinese history this study provides a detailed analysis of China Africa relations in the second half of the 20th century Examining the encounters conflicts and dynamics of China Kenya Zambia relations from the 1950s until the present as well as the basis on which historical narratives have been constructed the book presents two contrasting state perspectives underlining the concept of African agency Driven by a class based analysis of world revolution Communist China's foreign policy did not distinguish significantly between Kenya and Zambia Both countries sought ideological and material support from China in the years after their independence The Kenya African National Union under both Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Moi pursued a consistently pragmatic foreign agenda and despite political tensions and ideological rifts with China since the mid 1960s Sino Kenyan trade has continued to grow steadily In contrast China Zambia relations under Kenneth Kaunda were cordial despite their political differences Zambian leaders maintained a relatively high consensus that any alleged Chinese Communist threat would not be allowed to fuel power struggles within their United National Independence Party Challenging both the widely accepted role of China Africa's historical lineage as well as the tendency to assume uniformity in China's relationships across the continent the author explains the development of these relationships and sheds light on the historical underpinnings or lack thereof on contemporary China Africa relations

The Advance of African Capital

Tom G. Forrest, 1994 Combining ethnographic and historical perspectives Tom Forrest examines the strategies and patterns of development employed by business people from the colonial period to the present Through a series of highly readable case studies he provides a broad picture of the various forms of capital accumulation and sectoral advances in trade transport manufacture agriculture finance and other services These are set within the context of changing economic opportunities shifts in power and policy relations with foreign capital and attitudes towards private business and the state

The African Experience

Vincent Khapoya, 2015-07-14 This book examines the role that Africa has played on the world stage the African Union the African leaders efforts to take care of their own problems and lessen their dependence on the United States and European countries

Ordinary Whites in Apartheid Society Neil Roos, 2024-02-06 How were whites implicated in and shaped by apartheid culture and society and how did they contribute to it In Ordinary Whites in Apartheid Society historian Neil Roos traces the lives of ordinary white people in South Africa during the apartheid years beginning in 1948 when the National Party swept into power on the back of its catchall apartheid slogan Drawing on his own family's story and others Roos explores how working class whites frequently defied particular aspects of the apartheid state but seldom opposed or even acknowledged the idea of racial supremacy which lay at the heart of the apartheid society This cognitive dissonance afforded them a way to simultaneously accommodate and oppose apartheid and allowed them to later claim they never supported the apartheid system Ordinary Whites in Apartheid Society offers a telling reminder that the politics and practice of race in this case apartheid era whiteness derive not only from the top but also from the bottom

Political Topographies of the African State

Catherine Boone,2003-10-27 This study brings Africa into the mainstream of studies of state formation in agrarian societies Territorial integration is the challenge institutional linkages and political deals that bind center and periphery are the solutions In African countries rulers at the center are forced to bargain with regional elites to establish stable mechanisms of rule and taxation Variation in regional forms of social organization make for differences in the interests and political strength of regional leaders who seek to maintain or enhance their power vis a vis their followers and subjects and also vis a vis the center

Violent Class Struggles and The Need for Revolutionary Change: Anti-WTO Organized Labor Protest vs Seattle Police Marco T. Ntobi,2016-04-28 In this book I have attempted to trace as clearly and briefly as I can the nature of the capitalist and imperialist systems and the rising world class struggles against it a bitter life and death conflicts which are now only in their middle phase Much in this book of course has been said before and has been happening and it will be said again and again in many different ways by many different people before this enormous conflict is finally resolved The whole purpose of revolutionary violence is to destroy at its very roots the institutionalized system of greed which is also the institutionalized system of violence Today with the phoney cry of law and order the rulers of the imperialist nations attempt to throw the onus of violence on those who are protesting the system under which they live But the onus is not on them for violence is the near monopoly of the state apparatus Writing this book primarily has been a very important experience for me

Routledge Handbook of Pan-Africanism Reiland Rabaka,2020-04-30 The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism provides an international intersectional and interdisciplinary overview of and approach to Pan Africanism making an invaluable contribution to the ongoing evolution of Pan Africanism and demonstrating its continued significance in the 21st century The handbook features expert introductions to and critical explorations of the most important historic and current subjects theories and controversies of Pan Africanism and the evolution of black internationalism Pan Africanism is explored and critically engaged from different disciplinary points of view emphasizing the multiplicity of perspectives and foregrounding an intersectional approach The contributors provide erudite discussions of black internationalism black feminism African feminism and queer Pan Africanism alongside surveys of black nationalism black consciousness and Caribbean Pan Africanism Chapters on neo colonialism decolonization and Africanization give way to chapters on African social movements the African Union and the African Renaissance Pan African aesthetics are probed via literature and music illustrating the black internationalist impulse in myriad continental and diasporan artists work Including 36 chapters by acclaimed established and emerging scholars the handbook is organized into seven parts each centered around a comprehensive theme Intellectual origins historical evolution and radical politics of Pan Africanism Pan Africanist theories Pan Africanism in the African diaspora Pan Africanism in Africa Literary Pan Africanism Musical Pan Africanism The contemporary and continued relevance of Pan Africanism in the 21st century The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism is an indispensable source for scholars and students with research interests in continental and diasporan African history sociology politics economics and aesthetics It will also be a very valuable resource for those working in interdisciplinary fields such as African studies African American studies Caribbean studies decolonial studies postcolonial studies women and gender studies and queer studies

Africa in the United Nations System, 1945-2005 Issaka K. Souare, 2006-05-31 Though there have been numerous studies on the United Nations only a few have dealt comprehensively with Africa's relations with the world body This book attempts to fill this lacuna by providing a systematic assessment of Africa's relationship with the World body from its foundation in 1945 to its sixtieth anniversary in 2005 The premise of the book's argument is that to properly understand Africa's current relationship with the UN it is necessary to first understand the history and theoretical underpinnings behind the formation of the world body including the expectations and motives of the different stakeholders The book shows that there have been some real successes in Africa's relationship with the world body such as the joint efforts against the Apartheid regime in South Africa as well as real failures such as in the genocide in Rwanda Based on this it concludes that Africa's relationship with the United Nations has worked for the most part and will work even better if Africa sees its partnership with the UN as complementary to its own efforts projects and initiatives rather than something to depend on

Perilous Passage Amiya Kumar Bagchi, 2008-01-28 In this innovative and ambitious global history distinguished economic historian Amiya Kumar Bagchi traces the global history of human change and survival under the sway of capitalism since the voyages of Columbus Writing with extraordinary range and depth he offers a critical analysis of the history and human costs and consequences of development in Europe and North America and in major regions such as India China Japan and Africa Bagchi critically characterizes the emergence and operation of capitalism as a system driven by wars over resources and markets rather than one that genuinely operates on the principle of free markets His unflinching examination of the human toll in the periphery as well in the core nations includes not only economic processes and issues of inequality within and among nations but also the intertwining of economics and war making on a world scale Bagchi's compelling vision will change the ways in which we think about many of the largest issues in the world history and development over the past 500 years

Writing African History John Edward Philips, 2006 A comprehensive evaluation of how to read African history Writing African History is an essential work for anyone who wants to write or even seriously read African history It will replace Daniel McCall's classic Africa in Time Perspective as the introduction to African history for the next generation and as a reference for professional historians interested readers and anyone who wants to understand how African history is written Africa in Time Perspective was written in the 1960s when African history was a new field of research This new book reflects the development of African history since then It opens with a comprehensive introduction by Daniel McCall followed by a chapter by the editor explaining what African history is and is not in the context of historical theory and the development of historical narrative the humanities and social sciences The first half of the book focuses on sources of historical data while the second half examines different perspectives on history The editor's final chapter explains how to combine various sorts of evidence into a coherent account of African history Writing African History will become the most important guide to African history for the 21st century Contributors Bala Achi Isaac Olawale Albert Diedre L Badjo Dorothea Bedigian Barbara M Cooper Henry John Drewal Christopher Ehret Toyin Falola David Henige Joseph E Holloway John Hunwick S O Y Keita William G Martin Daniel McCall Susan Keech McIntosh Donatien Dibwe Dia Mwembu Kathleen Sheldon John Thornton and Masao Yoshida John Edwards Philips is professor of international society Hirosaki University and author of Spurious Arabic Hausa and Colonial Nigeria Madison University of Wisconsin African Studies Center 2000

Crisis of Legitimacy and Political Violence in Uganda, 1890 to 1979 Ogenga Otunnu, 2016-12-26 This book demonstrates that societies experiencing prolonged and severe crises of legitimacy are prone to intense and persistent political violence The most significant factor accounting for the persistence of intense political violence in Uganda is the severe crisis of legitimacy of the state its institutions political incumbents and their challengers This crisis of legitimacy which is shaped by both internal and external forces past and present accounts for the remarkable continuity in the history of political violence since the construction of the state

Multi-Ethnic Coalitions in Africa Leonardo R. Arriola, 2013 Africa's long ruling incumbents stay in power because opposition politicians struggle to secure the finances required to build electoral coalitions

The Surreptitious Speech V. Y. Mudimbe, 1992-09 Distinguished scholar V Y Mudimbe assembles a lively tribute to Presence Africaine the landmark African studies journal begun in 1947 Paris While it celebrates the project's forty year history The Surreptitious Speech does not naively canonize the journal but rather offers a vibrant discussion and critical reading of its context characteristics and significance

Imperialism, Race and Resistance Barbara Bush, 2002-01-04 Imperialism Race and Resistance marks an important new development in the study of British and imperial interwar history Focusing on Britain West Africa and South Africa Imperialism Race and Resistance charts the growth of anti colonial resistance and opposition to racism in the prelude to the post colonial era The complex nature of imperial power is explored as well as its impact on the lives and struggles of black men and women in Africa and the African diaspora Barbara Bush argues that tensions between white dreams of power and black dreams of freedom were seminal in transforming Britain's relationship with Africa in an era bounded by global war and shaped by ideological conflict

Peasants and Globalization A. Haroon Akram-Lodhi, Cristóbal Kay, 2012-08-21 In 2007 for the first time in human history a majority of the world's population lived in cities However on a global scale poverty overwhelmingly retains a rural face This book assembles an unparalleled group of internationally eminent scholars in the field of rural development and social change in order to explore historical and contemporary processes of agrarian change and transformation and their consequent impact upon the livelihoods poverty and well being of those who live in the countryside The book provides a critical analysis of the extent to which rural development trajectories have in the past and are now promoting a change in rural production processes the accumulation of rural resources and shifts in rural politics and the implications of such trajectories for peasant livelihoods and rural workers in an era of globalization Peasants and Globalization thus explores continuity and change in the debate on the agrarian question from its early formulation in the late 19th century to the continuing relevance it has in our times including chapters from Terence Byres Amiya Bagchi Ellen Wood Farshad Araghi Henry Bernstein Saturnino M Borras Ray Kiely Michael Watts and Philip McMichael Collectively the contributors argue that neoliberal social and economic policies have in deepening the market imperative governing the contemporary world food system not only failed to tackle to underlying causes of rural poverty but have indeed deepened the agrarian crisis currently confronting the livelihoods of peasant farmers and rural workers This crisis does not go unchallenged as rural social movements have emerged for the first time on a transnational scale Confronting development policies that are unable to reduce let alone eliminate rural poverty transnational rural social movements are attempting to construct a more just future for the world s farmers and rural workers

Africa and the Shaping of International Human Rights Derrick M. Nault, 2020-12-17 Africa throughout its postcolonial history has been plagued by human rights abuses ranging from intolerance of political dissent to heinous crimes such as genocide Some observers consequently have gone so far as to suggest that human rights are a concept alien to African cultures The International Criminal Court ICC s focus on Africa in recent years has reinforced the region s reputation as a hotspot for human rights violations But despite Africa s notoriety concerning human rights Africa and the Shaping of International Human Rights argues that the continent has been pivotal in helping to shape contemporary human rights norms and practices Challenging prevailing Eurocentric interpretations of human rights origins and evolution it demonstrates that from the colonial era to the present Africa s peoples have drawn attention to and prompted novel ways of thinking about human rights through their encounters with the world at large Beginning with the depredations of King Leopold II in the Congo Free State in the 1880s and ending with the ICC s current activities in Africa it reveals how African events personalities groups and nations have influenced the trajectory of human rights history in intriguing and critical ways in the end enlarging and universalizing a major discourse of our time

Politics And Economic Development In Nigeria Tom Forrest, 2019-07-12 This text provides an account of the dynamic interplay between the political and economic forces that have shaped government priorities and strategies in Africa s most populous country The author examines efforts to build a stronger federal centre to develop national policies to counter uneven development and to reduce conflicts that have arisen from ethnic regional class and religious differences A final section analyzes the evolution of economic policy and performance looking specifically at agrarian policy the programme of economic liberalization and the impact of oil revenues

The Palgrave Handbook of Africa and the Changing Global Order Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2021-11-22 This handbook fills a large gap in the current knowledge about the critical role of Africa in the changing global order By connecting the past present and future in a continuum that shows the paradox of existence for over one billion people the book underlines the centrality of the African continent to global knowledge production the global economy global security and global creativity Bringing together perspectives from top Africa scholars it actively dispels myths of the continent as just a passive recipient of external influences presenting instead an image of an active global agent that astutely projects soft power Unlike previous handbooks this book offers an eclectic mix of historical contemporary and interdisciplinary approaches that allow for a more holistic view of the many aspects of Africa's relations with the world

Work in a Modern Society Jürgen Kocka, 2010 Whereas the history of workers and labor movements has been widely researched the history of work has been rather neglected by comparison This volume offers original contributions that deal with cultural social and theoretical aspects of the history of work in modern Europe including the relations between gender and work working and soldiering work and trust constructions and practices The volume focuses on Germany but also places the case studies in a broader European context It thus offers an insight into social and cultural history as practiced by German speaking scholars today but also introduces the reader to ongoing research in this field
