The Making Of Politicians Studies From Africa And Asia:

Discerning the Powers in Post-Colonial Africa and Asia Pak Nung Wong, 2016-02-17 Qualifying post Westphalian sovereign statehood as a power as argued for in Hendrik Berkhoff's political theology this book addresses the decades long theological spiritual debate between Christian realism and Christian pacifism in U S foreign policy and global Christian circles It approaches the debate by delving into the pacifist Anabaptist political theology and delineates empirically how sovereign statehood in post colonial Africa and Asia has fallen into the hands of the devil Satan as a fallen power in the Foucaultian terms of power structures techniques and episteme While the book offers intervention schemes and options it holds that Christian statecraft remains the source of hope to effectively address a number of serious global issues By extension the book is thus an invitation to ignite debates on the suitability of Christian statecraft and the nexus between spirituality and world politics making it especially interesting for scholars and students in the fields of International Politics Politics of Asian and African States Post colonial Studies and Political Theology China's New Role in African Politics Christof Hartmann, Nele Noesselt, 2019-10-21 China's rise to global power status in recent decades has been accompanied by deepening economic relationships with Africa with the New Silk Road's extension to Sub Saharan Africa as the latest step leading to much academic debate about the influence of Chinese business in the continent However China's engagement with African states at the political and diplomatic level has received less attention in the literature This book investigates the impact of Chinese policies on African politics asking how China deals with political instability in Africa and in turn how Africans perceive China to be helping or hindering political stability While China officially operates with a foreign policy strategy which conceives of Africa as one integrated monolithic area with the Forum on China Africa Cooperation FOCAC the flagship of inter continental cooperation this book highlights the plurality of context specific interaction patterns between China and African elites demonstrating how China's role and relevance has differently evolved according to whether African countries are resource rich and geostrategically important from the Chinese perspective or not By looking comparatively at a range of different country cases the book aims to promote a more thorough understanding of how China reacts to political stability and instability and in which ways the country contributes to domestic political dynamics and stability within African states China's New Role in African Politics will be of interest to researchers from across Political Science International Relations International Law and Economy Security Studies and African and Chinese Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY ND 4.0 license Routledge Handbook of Africa-Asia Relations Pedro Amakasu Raposo, David Arase, Scarlett Cornelissen, 2017-10-30 The Routledge Handbook of Africa Asia Relations is the first handbook aimed at studying the interactions between countries across Africa and Asia in a multi disciplinary and comprehensive way Providing a balanced discussion of historical and on going processes which have both shaped and changed intercontinental relations over time contributors take a thematic approach to examine the ways in which we can conceptualise these two very different yet inextricably linked areas of the world Using comparative examples throughout the chronological sections cover Early colonialist contacts between Africa and Asia Modern Asia Africa interactions through diplomacy political networks and societal connections Africa Asia contemporary relations including increasing economic security and environmental cooperation This handbook grapples with major intellectual questions defines current research and projects future agendas of investigation in the field As such it will be of great interest to students of African and Asian Politics as well as researchers and policymakers interested in Asian and African Studies

Political Economy and the Aid Industry in Asia J. Hutchison, W. Hout, C. Hughes, R. Robison, 2015-12-25 Adopting a distinctive structural political economy approach this book uniquely explains the blind spots of alternative political economy approaches to international aid and presents an original framework for evaluating likely reformers strength of commitment and potential alliances with donors

Asian Tigers, African Lions, 2013-10-02 Asian Tigers African Lions is an anthology of contributions by scholars and former diplomats related to the Tracking Development research project funded by the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs and coordinated by the African Studies Centre and KITLV both in Leiden in collaboration with scholars based in Africa and Asia The project compared the performance of growth and development of four pairs of countries in Southeast Asia and Sub Sahara Africa during the last sixty years It tried to answer the question how two regions with comparable levels of income per capita in the 1950s could diverge so rapidly Why are there so many Asian tigers and not yet so many African lions What could Africa learn from Southeast Asian development trajectories This book has won the Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award 2014

The Political Economy of Africa Vishnu Padayachee, 2010-06-10 The Political Economy of Africa aims to fill a major gap in the existing literature by exploring the economy and economics of Africa The book has a critical approach from the perspective of political economy rather than mainstream economics This book addresses the seemingly intractable economic problems of the African continent and trace their origins but also always to bring out the instances of successful economic change and the possibilities for economic revival and renewal

Routledge Handbook of the Horn of Africa Jean-Nicolas Bach, 2022-03-30 The Routledge Handbook of the Horn of Africa provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary survey of contemporary research related to the Horn of Africa Situated at the junction of the Sahel Saharan strip and the Arabian Peninsula the Horn of Africa is growing in global importance due to demographic growth and the strategic importance of the Suez Canal Divided into sections on authoritarianism and resistance religion and politics migration economic integration the military and regimes and liberation the contributors provide up to date authoritative knowledge on the region in light of contemporary strategic concerns The handbook investigates how political economic and security innovations have been implemented sometimes with violence by use of force or by negotiation including ethnic federalism in Ethiopia independence in Eritrea and South Sudan integration of the traditional authorities in the neo patrimonial administrations Somalian Islamic

Courts the Sudanese Islamist regime people s movements multilateral operations and the construction of an architecture for regional peace and security Accessibly written this handbook is an essential read for scholars students and policy professionals interested in the contemporary politics in the Horn of Africa

The Politics of Land Reform in Africa Ambreena Manji,2008-02-29 Across Africa land is being commodified private ownership is replacing communal and customary tenure Farms are turned into collateral for rural credit markets Law reform is at the heart of this revolution The Politics of Land Reform in Africa casts a critical spotlight on this profound change in African land economy The book illuminates the key role of legislators legal consultants and academics in tenure reform These players exert their influence by translating the economic and regulatory interests of the World Bank civil society groups and commercial lenders in to questions of law Drawing on political economy and actor network theory The Politics of Land Reform in Africa is an indispensable contribution to the study of agrarian change in developing countries

The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger,2004 This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia s development
