Jack Cohen,Ian Stewart,2007-08-17 A fascinating and useful handbook to both the science and science fiction of extraterrestrial life Cohen and Stewart are amusing opinionated and expert guides I found it a terrific and informative piece of work nothing else like it Greg Bear I loved it Larry Niven Ever wonder about what aliens could be like The world authority is Jack Cohen a professional biologist who has thought long and hard about the vast realm of possibilities This is an engaging swiftly moving study of alien biology a subject with bounds and constraints these authors plumb with verve and intelligence Gregory Benford A celebration of life off Earth A hearteningly optimistic book giving a much needed antidote to the pessimism of astrobiologists who maintain that we are alone in the universe a stance based on a very narrow view of what could constitute life A triumph of speculative nonfiction Dougal Dixon author of After Man A Zoology of the Future Of

Robots, God, and Government Daniel Grote,2005-11 Dr Steve Onus woke up one day thinking he had unlocked the secret to programming humanlike intelligence into android robots What he got instead was the business end of God s boredom With a doomsday cult trailing his every move and the media and protestors setting up permanent residence outside his house Dr Steve is forced out of his private medical practice and into a world of sheer idiocy On the way he is forced to team up with one of his own robots and a quasi religious fanatic in order to stop Armageddon and get revenge on his ex wife Of Robots God and Government is a philosophical discourse on robotics the End of Days and what happens when God gets the rainy day blues

New Dark Age James Bridle, 2019-05-21 New Dark Age is among the most unsettling and illuminating books I've read about the Internet which is to say that it is among the most unsettling and illuminating books I've read about contemporary life New Yorker As the world around us increases in technological complexity our understanding of it diminishes Underlying this trend is a single idea the belief that our existence is understandable through computation and more data is enough to help us build a better world In reality we are lost in a sea of information increasingly divided by fundamentalism simplistic narratives conspiracy theories and post factual politics Meanwhile those in power use our lack of understanding to further their own interests Despite the apparent accessibility of information we're living in a new Dark Age From rogue financial systems to shopping algorithms from artificial intelligence to state secrecy we no longer understand how our world is governed or presented to us The media is filled with unverifiable speculation much of it generated by anonymous software while companies dominate their employees through surveillance and the threat of automation In his brilliant new work leading artist and writer James Bridle surveys the history of art technology and information systems and reveals the dark clouds that gather over our dreams of the digital sublime
