Amanda James L. Varnadoe,2012-05-08 As a new writer James L Varnadoe dreamed of writing about things that interested him most Love and War are two of those interests After I completed my efforts toward writing my biography and ancestral history I decided to try something totally Greek to me a fictional story

Amanda Light of MY Life This story centers around two families living in New York and Ohio Their lives come together somewhat by coincidence Although they lived similar life styles they had nothing else in common except two children who fall in love with each other These two faced the same trials and tribulations associated with young love but encountered hardships uncommon with the youth and in todays environment Distance threatened to destroy their love for each other and the lack of reliable communication and travel venues posed an even greater threat There were several people who impacted their lives in their struggled to find their way back together again However they found solace in their reunion after a lengthy separation and were content with the outcome of their quest for happiness. They both lived in close proximity of each other and worked to prepare the way for a wedding that would bind them to each other. The onslaught of the civil war impacted both families in the most horrific way imaginable and would place an even greater strain on their lives. This epic about family ties, faith, humor, and mystique surrounded by love and romance may whet your reading appetite. I hope to have a sequel to this story finished in the near future for your reading pleasure also. Eat Live Love Die Betty Fussell, 2017-10-10

Betty Fussell is an inspiring badass. She's not just the award-winning author of numerous books ranging from biography and memoir to cookbooks and food history, not just a winner of the James Beard Foundation's Journalism Award who was inducted into their Who's Who of American Food and Beverage in 2009, and not just an extraordinary person whose fifty years worth of essays on food, travel, and the arts have appeared in scholarly journals, popular magazines, and newspapers as varied as The New York Times, The New Yorker, The Los Angeles Times, Saveur, and Vogue. This is a woman who at eighty-two years old and despite being half-blind went deer hunting for the very first time in the Montana foothills with her son Sam, as described in her 2010 essay for the New York Times Magazine. She got her deer. This is a woman who declared in a 2005 essay for Vogue that she had to teach herself Latin and German from scratch on top of teaching herself how to cook as a young twenty-one-year-old bride because housewifery wasn't enough. Indeed, for Fussell, one subject is never enough. Counterpoint is thrilled to be publishing this selected anthology of her diverse essays. The Life and Times of the Shah Gholam Reza

Afkhami, 2009-01-12. This epic biography, a gripping insider's account, is a long overdue chronicle of the life and times of Mohammad Reza Shah, who ruled from 1941 to 1979 as the last Iranian monarch. Gholam Reza Afkhami uses his unparalleled access to a large number of individuals, including high-ranking figures in the Shah's regime, members of his family, and members of the opposition, to depict the unfolding of the Shah's life against the forces and events that shaped the development of modern Iran. The first major biography of the Shah in twenty-five years, this richly detailed account provides a radically new perspective on key events in Iranian history, including the 1979 revolution, U.S.-Iran relations, and Iran's nuclear program. It also sheds new light on what now drives political and cultural currents in a country at the heart of today's most perplexing geopolitical dilemmas. Chicken Soup for the Soul: My Kind (of) America Amy Newmark, 2017-08-29. These 101 stories showcase an America filled with good people who volunteer in their communities, help their neighbors, and pride themselves on doing the right thing. Back cover
