The Man Who Made The Beatles An Intimate Biography Of Brian Epstein:

The Man who Made the Beatles Ray Coleman,1989 The title does not exaggerate In the six years that he devoted to their careers their creative freedom and their personal happiness Brian Epstein did make the Beatles and soon after his sudden death in 1967 at age 32 the group split up Based on interviews with Epstein s family friends and associates this biography by a man who knew him well sensitively describes and tries to explain the charming artistic resourceful manager who realized the potential of his four young fellow Liverpoolians Having made the Beatles famous internationally and amassed a fortune for them and for himself Epstein nevertheless was restless depressed capricious easily bored and increasingly irrational From a middle class orthodox Jewish family Epstein suffered the dreadful inner conflict of reluctant homosexuality at odds with his deep desire to marry and be a father Coleman biographer of Eric Clapton and John Lennon writes fluently objectively and with warmth but in an attempt to provide as detailed a picture as possible strings along more quotations and opinions than are necessary Photos not seen by PW July Publishers Weekly Brian Epstein Ray photographed band in history and are the subject of numerous biographical studies but a surprising dearth of academic scholarship addresses the Fab Four New Critical Perspectives on the Beatles offers a collection of original previously unpublished essays that explore new aspects of the Beatles The interdisciplinary collection situates the band in its historical moment of the 1960s but argues for artistic innovation and cultural ingenuity that account for the Beatles lasting popularity today Along with theoretical approaches that bridge the study of music with perspectives from non music disciplines the texts under investigation make this collection new in terms of Beatles scholarship Contributors frequently address under examined Beatles texts or present critical perspectives on familiar works to produce new insight about the Beatles and their multi generational audiences
