The Manuscripts Of Pauline Archange:

Illustrations for Two Novels by Marie-Claire Blais Mary Meigs, 1977 The Manuscripts of Pauline Archange Private and Fictional Words (Routledge Revivals) Coral Ann Howells, 2014-08-07 First published Marie-Claire Blais, 1976 in 1987 this is an introductory study of the most widely read Canadian women novelists of the 1970s and 1980s At its centre lies the question of how the search for a distinctive cultural identity relates to the need for a national cultural identity in the post colonial era Coral Ann Howells argues that Canadian women's fiction throughout the period of study represents how the Canadian cultural identity exceeds its geographical limits and those traditional structures of patriarchal authority need revision if women's alternative views are to be taken into account Including short biographical sketches and a complete list of the books published by the authors under discussion writers examined include Margaret Atwood Alice Munro and Margaret Laurence Francophone Women Coming of Age Debra Popkin, 2009-03-26 This book began as a panel of University professors on the theme of Francophone Women Coming of Age Memoirs of Childhood and Adolescence presented at the Northeast Modern Language Association Convention in Philadelphia 2006 The essays center on the plight of growing up female in male dominated Francophone cultures Issues of culture tradition religion Catholic and Muslim parental conflicts and sibling rivalry are addressed in the works of authors from France Quebec Africa and the Caribbean Authors whose memoirs and fiction are analyzed in this study span three continents europe North America Quebec and the Caribbean and Africa but they share a common search for identity and self definition Dr Beth Gale Clark University analyzes role play and the use of language in the works of Annie Ernaux France and Assia Djebar North Africa Post colonial angst and cross cultural misunderstanding are the focus of the study of Aminata Sow Fall's Douceurs du bercail Senegal West Africa by Dr Natalie Edwards Wagner College Two chapters focus on Caribbean authors from Guadeloupe Dr Debra Popkin Baruch College CUNY analyzes Gis le Pineau s special relationship with grandmother who gave her a sense of cultural identity Dr Leah Tolbert Lyons Middle Tennessee State University discusses the negative impact of the bad mothering in Myriam Warner Vieyra's first novel As the Sorcerer Said Three chapters are devoted to writers from French speaking Canada Dr Myrna Delson Karan St John s University traces the portraits of children and adolescents in the works of Gabrielle Roy Dr Pascale Vergereau Dewey Kutztown University Pennsylvania explores the tormented childhood of Marie Claire Blais s Pauline Archange Dr Edith B Vandervoort Defense Language Institute in Monterey examines the search for identity and tortured father daughter relationships in the novels of Gabrielle Gourdeau Monique Proulx and Marie Laberge contemporary writers from Quebec The seven chapters in this book explore the challenges faced by women from late 19th century through the 20th and into the 21st century as they gradually gained a voice to express their changing roles in society Themes to be examined include sexual awakening teenage pregnancy and the rituals of coming of age Conflicts occur between daughter and parents who inculcate traditional values and try to restrict their child's freedom. The importance of writing as a source of liberation and self definition will be explored in light of the young girl s quest for freedom Why write memoirs Why write in French These issues are discussed especially in cases where French is the language of the colonizer Assia Djebar and Gis le Pineau or where French is essential to the preservation of one s cultural identity as it is for Quebec writers This book will be a fine resource for college and university professors and students in programs of French Women's Studies and French Francophone Literature as well as African Caribbean and Quebec Studies Life/Lines Bella Brodzki, Celeste Schenck, 2019-05-15 Autobiography raises a vital issue in feminist critical theory today the imperative need to situate the female subject Life Lines a collection of essays on women s autobiography attempts to meet this need Women and Narrative Identity Mary Jean Matthews Green, 2001 Women writers have made significant contributions to Quebec s ongoing process of cultural self definition Because the novel has traditionally played a central role in the construction of national identity Quebec literary history has seen the continued production of identity narratives which Jacques Godbout calls the national text Using the tools of contemporary feminist criticism and building on a tradition of work on Quebec women s writing Mary Jean Green considers issues of national and cultural self definition situating the literary texts of Quebec women within a unique political and historical context while also relating them to the work of women writing in other cultural situations from nineteenth century Europe to the postcolonial francophone world International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who s Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes The Routledge Introduction to Gender and Sexuality in Literature in Canada Linda M. Morra, 2023-01-31 The Routledge Introduction to Gender and Sexuality in Literature in Canada charts the evolution of gender and sexuality as they have been represented and performed in the literatures of Canada for more than three centuries From early colonial texts by Frances Brooke to settler texts by Susanna Moodie and Catherine Parr Traill to more contemporary texts by Jane Rule Alice Munro Joshua Whitehead Ivan Coyote and others this volume will introduce readers to how gender and sexuality have been variably conceived in Canada and the work they perform across multiple genres Calling upon recent currents of gender theory and examining the composition structure and history of selected literary texts that is the literary sediments that have accumulated over centuries readers of this book will explore how those representations shift over time By examining literature in Canada in relation to crucial cultural political and historical contexts readers will better apprehend why that literature has significantly transformed and broadened to address racialized and fluid identities that continue to challenge and disrupt any stable notion of gendered and sexualized identity today

Second Words Margaret Atwood, 2011-08-01 The fifty essays in Second Words span the period from 1962 to 1980 and reveal Margaret Atwood s views on feminism Canadian literature the creative process nationalism sexism as well as critical commentary on such writers as Erica Jong E L Doctorow Northrop Frye Roch Carrier Marie Claire Blais Marge Piercy Adrienne Rich Sylvia Plath and many more A Twilight Celebration Marie-Claire Blais, 2019-07-30 The latest work in internationally acclaimed author Marie Claire Blais s masterful novel cycle A Twilight Celebration examines the prophetic side of the writer and the burden that falls to him in a world whose fate is yet to be determined Daniel a middle aged novelist and loving father alienated from one of his sons and unsure how to care for his daughter is on his way to an international conference of writers The gathering is to be held in the forest above a mountain village of a strangely dreamlike nature In the twilight of the festival s setting dreams memories nightmares and dark forebodings meld in Daniel s unsettled but deeply sympathetic consciousness He is haunted by pressing existential questions What is to be done What are his responsibilities as a father as a friend and as a writer As Daniel confronts his own vanities as he recalls the activism but also the disappointments and betrayals of friends and colleagues as he contends with above all the fears and aspirations of his children in times marred by apocalypse he asks ultimately what can be done In what may well be the most beautiful and disturbing of her novels Marie Claire Blais leads us on a heady spellbinding journey through an interconnected world in which the artist strives to divert humankind s headlong rush towards a terrible destiny Here is a world in which friends and strangers the living the dead and those not yet born are inextricably bonded by their often flawed but always splendid humanity Yet again Blais captivates with her urgent concerns irrepressible empathy and singular idiom A Twilight Celebration is an astonishing literary accomplishment Nothing for You Here, Young Man Marie-Claire Blais, 2014-05-16 In the latest installment in her award winning series Marie Claire Blais reintroduces us to Petites Cendres familiar from other books in the cycle and lets us into the lives of two other unforgettable characters She shows us once again how creativity and hope and suffering and exclusion intersect There is the writer who is stranded in an airport of the South Island he is held captive because of a delayed flight And a teenage musician a former child prodigy living on the streets with his dog wonders where he will get his next meal Then there is Petites Cendres who no longer dances or sings and refuses to get out of bed to attend the coronation of the new Queen of Night By superimposing these three worlds Blais continues her ambitious compelling exploration of life in contemporary North America Rebecca. Born in the Maelstrom Marie-Claire Blais, 2009 With this astounding fourth novel in her ongoing series of contemporary masterpieces Marie Claire Blais invites us again to enter a complex circle of unforgettable characters But this time the tone is different Blais writing has acquired a new buoyant electrifying rhythm a rhythm described as the heartbeat of the world As we follow a central character named Rebecca the voice in the novel becomes the voice of the world inventing itself and the future playing itself out Here Nigel Spencer Marie Claire Blais longtime translator gives us Blais singular vision in supple English prose that These Festive Nights Marie-Claire Blais, 2018-08-07 The first is as transcendent and nuanced as the original French volume in the beloved novelist Marie Claire Blais prize winning novel cycle acclaimed as one of the greatest undertakings in modern Quebec fiction reissued in a handsome A List edition featuring an introduction by Lisa Moore Originally published in 1995 under the title Soifs the first novel in Marie Claire Blais masterful series won the Governor General s Award for French Fiction and was hailed by critics around the world as a tour de force comparing Blais to such literary greats as Virginia Woolf Dante Sophocles and Shakespeare In this dazzling rendering These Festive Nights celebrated translator Sheila Fischman brings Blais novel to life for English speaking readers A sun drenched paradise in the Gulf of Mexico surrounded by the glimmering blue sea Renata is convalescing on this island poised between two worlds between great wealth and extreme poverty between the past and an uncertain future between the beauty of the world and the horrors of history During her time here Renata becomes tormented by thirst for justice for pleasure for intoxication while all around her festivities are going on in joint celebration of the birth of baby Vincent and the end of the twentieth century Over the course of three days and three nights a flock of characters assembles an entire spectrum of humanity is depicted in the grip of doubt and suffering In this swirling baroque fresco Marie Claire Blais captures the essence of our apocalyptic age rendering it in powerfully evocative Thunder and Light Marie-Claire Blais, 2018-08-04 The second volume in the beloved novelist Marie Claire Blais s prose prize winning novel cycle acclaimed as one of the greatest undertakings in modern Quebec fiction reissued in a handsome A List edition Originally published in 2001 Thunder and Light is the second volume in Marie Claire Blais s prize winning Soifs series hailed as one of the greatest undertakings in modern Quebec fiction Powered by its characters gripping exploration of the world's dark corners the novel is a teeming microcosm in which boundaries collapse and the extremes and contradictions that animate our times are reconciled Blais locks us directly into the consciousness of her characters many of whom we met in her previous novel These Festive Nights and many that she derives from actual news stories Jessica a seven year old attempting to beat the world record as the youngest pilot to cross the continent Nathanal a teenager on death row for killing his favourite teacher Our Lady of the Bags a modern day Joan of Arc who lives among Manhattan's skyscrapers and follows the voices in her head and Caroline and Jean Mathieu aging artists who are fighting to come together again One character s thoughts or actions have consequences for another 3 000 miles away who is a complete stranger to the first This is an intricate house of cards delicately but expertly constructed that shocks us in its perversity and familiarity ultimately finding hope and redemption in the most human and basic forms of art Augustino and the Choir of Destruction Marie-Claire Blais, 2007-05-01 In Augustino and the Choir of Destrucion literary legend and three time winner of the Governor General s Literary Award Marie Claire Blais delivers the third volume in the prize winning series These Festive Nights Thunder and

Light Augustino and the Choir of Destruction and Rebecca Born in the Maelstrom acclaimed as one of the greatest undertakings in modern Quebec fiction Augustino and the Choir of Destruction is set on an island in the Gulf of Mexico that is home to the full spectrum of humanity the rich the poor the powerful the humble artists criminals With her unique signature use of punctuation Marie Claire Blais manages to brilliantly show in one flashing stroke men and women victims and tormentors child kamikaze pilots and petty thieves from Bahama Street Charles a great poet cut down by AIDS Cinderella a transvestite prostituting himself to a customer at the Porte du Baiser saloon Caroline an artist and photographer who has seen all the hidden treasures of the world and Augustino a clairvoyant child writer These individual destinies combine in Blais vision to form a single harmonic texture Songs for Angel Marie-Claire Blais, 2021-07-06 The ninth novel in internationally acclaimed author Marie Claire Blais s extraordinary Soifs cycle Songs for Angel is an impassioned interrogation of violence and hate that takes us into the soul of a white supremacist on the verge of a racist attack In the penultimate installment of the magnificent and ambitious Soifs cycle widely regarded as one of the most original and ambitious endeavors ever to be undertaken in contemporary literature renowned novelist Marie Claire Blais once again marries the highest artistic standards with the most pressing human and political concerns Revisiting figures from the previous novels in a swirling fresco of more than a hundred characters Blais also takes us into the soul of the Young Man a white supremacist preparing to attack a Black church and murder its entire congregation This is an extraordinary portrait of the times that jostles and discomboluates the reader while inviting us to see the world in all its injustice and distress but also its promise and beauty Songs for Angel reminds us that Blais is a writer who never ceases to situate us in the world and the roles we play in it and that reading her is always an unforgettable human experience The Acacia Gardens Marie-Claire Blais, 2016-06-04 What anxiety grips Petites Cendres as he runs towards the sea in the sunshine on a warm tropical morning Shouldn t he be reassured by the thought that he now lives at the Acacia Gardens a comfortable home where all find care understanding and healing How can Fleur the young musical prodigy listen to the diabolical confessions of Wrath the fugitive priest without shuddering And can Daniel the writer finish his novel the one he has been working on for twenty years despite his sensitivity and empathy for all creatures even if they are the most humble like the lizard he inadvertently crushed under his sandal With this latest novel Marie Claire Blais once again gives us a vibrant portrait that embraces the span of life from birth to death and beyond Her characters question their purpose and what will come after as they are confronted by evil that lives and that has taken root A Writer's Life The Writers' Trust of Canada, 2011-05-24 For anyone who loves great literature or aspires to write it this is an essential collection full of insight wisdom humour and candour from Canada's most important and beloved literary figures For the past twenty five years the Writers Trust of Canada's annual lecture series the Margaret Laurence Memorial Lecture has invited some of Canada's most prominent authors to discuss the theme of A Writer s Life in front of their peers Hugh MacLennan Mavis Gallant Timothy Findley W O Mitchell Pierre Berton P K Page Dorothy

Livesay Alistair MacLeod and Margaret Atwood among others have shared the personal challenges they faced in forging their own paths as writers at a time when such a career was still unusual in this country Intimate frank and revealing in tone their lectures collected for the first time in celebration of the series twenty fifth anniversary provide a unique account of a period when a national writing community was just being formed and give us unprecedented access to the heroes and heroines of Canadian literature as they share their insights into their work the profession of writing the growing canon of our literature and the cultural history of our country Mai at the Predators' Ball Marie-Claire Blais, 2012-06-09 Winner of the Governor General's Literary Award Translation Shortlisted for the Cole Foundation Prize for Translation In Mai at the Predators Ball Marie Claire Blais literary legend and four time winner of the Governor General's Literary Award for Fiction offers a mesmerizing and unforgettable portrait of imaginary beings who seem to embrace the whole of humanity Every night in the Saloon after darkness falls a group of boys are transformed into creatures we see only in dreams They adorn themselves in colourful dresses and wigs and they take to the stage to sing and dance They open their arms to those who are excluded both men and women triumphant and threatened both free and bound and every evening is a carnival of freedom and transgression With this masterful novel Blais invites us to share the drama of perfect joy the tragedy of happiness and she gives us her best work yet The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization
