The Many Faces Of The Divine Concilium 1995 :

A Theology of Conversation Stephen Okey, 2018 Sometimes described as a theologian's theologian David Tracy's scholarship has impacted countless thinkers around the globe The complexity of his thought however has often made engaging his work into a daunting challenge Combining analysis of the most influential features of Tracy's theology theological method the religious classic public theology with a retrieval of his more overlooked interests Christology God Stephen Okey presents the essential themes of Tracy's career in accessible and insightful prose Early Christian and Jewish Monotheism Loren T. Stuckenbruck, Wendy E. Sproston North, 2004-05-27 Early Christology must focus not simply on historical but also on theological ideas found in contemporary Jewish thought and practice In this book a range of distinguished contributors considers the context and formation of early Jewish and Christian devotion to God alone the emergence of monotheism The idea of monotheism is critically examined from various perspectives including the history of ideas Graeco Roman religions early Jewish mediator figures scripture exegesis and the history of its use as a theological category The studies explore different ways of conceiving of early Christian monotheism today asking whether monotheism is a conceptually useful category whether it may be applied cautiously and with qualifications or whether it is to be questioned in favor of different approaches to understanding the origins of Jewish and Christian beliefs and worship This is volume 1 in the Early Christianity in Context series and volume 263 in the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement Series

Concilium, Vol. 1995/2. The many faces of the divine, 1995 Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus, 2004-01-01 The reality of suffering is the greatest challenge to faith in the goodness of creation and the possibility of salvation Edward Schillebeeckx not only takes this into account but dialectically incorporates the reality of suffering into a theology generally defined by its focus on the interrelated themes of creation salvation and eschatological hope In Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus O P traces the origins of Schillebeeckx's thought its development and its consequences Schillebeeckx grounds his entire theological project in the promise of a divine human future made visible in creation and entrusted to human freedom Because suffering is so tangibly present in human experience it provides the means dialectically of imaging the horizon of our hope It is thus that Schillebeeckx turns suffering into hope Asian Christian Theologians in Dialogue with Buddhism Kenneth Fleming, 2002 This book is a study of three of Asia's most respected contemporary theologians Kosuke Koyama Choan Seng Song and Aloysius Pieris It gives an introduction to Asian Buddhism and the Christian dialogue with Buddhists in Asia Furthermore it examines the work of each theologian in detail looking at the method and content of their dialogue and outlining its impact upon their respective theologies The book provides a critique of their dialogue and engages with the theological issues that have emerged In areas such as religious identity theological method and liberation theology it is shown that their conversation with Buddhism contributes to the development of a genuinely Asian theology and moreover raises important challenges to the worldwide theological community churches and to those engaged in interreligious dialogue On Naming the Present David Tracy,1994 International Mission Bibliography Norman E. Toward a Christian Theology of Religious Pluralism Jacques Dupuis,1997 The results from a lifetime of study reflection and experience in both Europe and Asia is this comprehensive examination of Christian theological understandings of world religious pluralism Religion Index Two ,1997 We Believe in One God? Albert Sundararaj Walters,2002 Catholic Identity James H. Provost,Knut Walf,1994 Chinese Religions Gary Seaman,1998 Metaphysics of Mystery Marijn de Jong,2020-02-06 How can we theologically reflect on universality in a world that increasingly focuses on particularities and differences Marijn de Jong argues that the question of universality calls for a reconceptualized form of metaphysical theology which he finds in the work of Karl Rahner and Edward Schillebeeckx Casting a new light on these theologians de Jong demonstrates that their methods contain a dialectical interrelation of hermeneutics and metaphysics an interrelation which seemingly has been lost in more recent hermeneutical theology Rahner and Schillebeeckx carefully balance particularity and universality without falling prey to relativist or absolutist ways of reasoning By analyzing fundamental themes such as experience and interpretation nature and grace faith and reason and intelligibility and mystery de Jong reveals the modest theological metaphysics that lies at the heart of their methods This critical retrieval demonstrates the enduring relevance of these thinkers and opens up new avenues of thought for theologians that do not want to shy away from the difficult question of the universality of God Covenant and the Metaphor of Divine Marriage in Biblical Thought Sebastian R.

Smolarz,2010-10-14 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status adversity slavery abuse illness grief and defeat Anthropologists sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice to bullying crime genocide narcissism post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The Shame Factor sponsored by St Mark s United Methodist Church in Lincoln NE in October 2010 Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for contemporary religion therapy ethics and social analysis New SCM Dictionary of Christian Spirituality Philip Sheldrake,2013-05-20 This dictionary attempts to give direct access to the development of Christian Spirituality It is a series of pieces written by experts to provide instant accurate and thought provoking information of high scholarship The Cyberdimension Eric Trozzo,2019-04-29 In 2013 Edward Snowden released a trove of documents revealing the extent of government electronic surveillance Since then we have been inundated with reports of vicious malware attacks election hacking data breaches potential cyberwars fights over Net Neutrality and fake internet news Where once discussion of cyberspace was full of hope of incredible potential benefits for humanity and global connection it has become the domain of fear anxiety conflict and authoritarian impulses As the cloud of the Net darkens into a storm are there insights from Christian theology about our online existence Is the divine present in this phenomenon known as cyberspace Is it a realm of fear or a realm of hope In The Cyberdimension Eric Trozzo engages these questions seeking not only a theological means of speaking about cyberspace in its ambiguity but also how the spiritual dimension of life provokes resistance to the reduction of life to what can be calculated Rather than focusing on the content available online he looks to the structure of cyberspace itself to find a chastened yet still expectant vision of divinity amidst the political economic and social forces at play in the cyber realm Turning to the Heavens and the Earth Julia
