Tuai a young Ngare Raumati chief from the Bay of Islands set off for England He was one of a number of M ori who after encountering European explorers traders and missionaries in New Zealand seized opportunities to travel beyond their familiar shores to Australia England and Europe in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries They sought new knowledge useful goods and technologies and a mutually beneficial relationship with the people they knew as P keh On his epic journey Tuai would visit exotic foreign ports mix with teeming crowds in the huge metropolis of London and witness the marvels of industrialisation at the Ironbridge Gorge in Shropshire With his lively travelling companion T tere he would attend fashionable gatherings and sit for his portrait He shared his deep understanding of M ori language and culture And his missionary friends did their best to convert him to Christianity But on returning to his M ori world in 1819 Tuai found there were difficult choices to be made His plan to integrate new European knowledge and relationships into his Ngare Raumati community was to be challenged by the rapidly shifting politics of the Bay of Islands With sympathy and insight Alison Jones and Kuni Kaa Jenkins uncover the remarkable story of one of the first M ori travellers to Europe Colonial Formations Jane Carey,Frances Steel,2020-12-17 Colonial Formations highlights the critical importance of colonial dynamics at the so called peripheries of the British Empire With a focus on the Australasian settler colonies the Pacific India and China it examines colonised peoples subjectivities mobilities and networks through accounts of labour law education and activism Decentering the British metropole while shedding light on its enduring power contributors chart the vast array of mobilities and connections that shaped these dynamics They illuminate contexts and experiences of labour education touring courtrooms and anticolonial struggles Many attend to questions of colonial belonging and its limits within cultures of sociability or citizenship and its attendant benefits and rights The chapters show how colonised peoples both Indigenous and coloured migrants critiqued and mobilised to challenge imposed strictures on their life possibilities whether in individual colonies in cross colonial networks or across the imperial arena In doing so this collection offers new insights into the interplay of place mobility and power and on the critical importance of colonial formations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal History Australia Carved Histories Roger Neich,2001 This comprehensive guide examines the personal histories roles and personalities that played into the traditional cultural art of carving It also traces the influence of European patronage and the ensuing tourist trade upon this art form as many Maori carvers began styling and catering their product to meet their clients aesthetic desires Included is a discussion of the establishment of the government

Maoriland Jane Stafford,Mark Williams,2006 This critical examination of Maoriland literature argues against the former glib dismissals of the period and focuses instead on the era s importance in the birth of a distinct New Zealand style of writing By connecting the literature and other cultural forms of Maoriland to the larger realms of empire and contemporary criticism this study explores the roots of the country s modern feminism progressive social legislation and bicultural relations
