The Poetry Review, 1986 Commemorating Ireland Eberhard Bort, 2004 This is not so much a book of commemoration as it is on or about commemoration The title of this book is ambiguous and intentionally so On the one hand there are echoes of Writing Ireland or Imagining Ireland or Re-Inventing Ireland an active process shaping our perception of what Ireland is and how it has become what it is On the other hand there is an element of glancing back Only what is gone what is in the past can be commemorated Ireland having undergone rapid and profound changes in the past decades often kindles feelings of nostalgia of an older Ireland having been lost in the filthy modern tide This is an examination in an international comparative context of the role commemorations play in contemporary politics and society This is a multi-disciplinary study by an array of distinguished authors Peter Collins Mary Daly Tony Canavan Owen Dudley Edwards Paul Arthur Christopher Harvie Malcolm Anderson Neal Ascherson Gerald Dawe Christopher Murray and Aidan Howard

Irish Poetry and the Construction of Modern Identity Stan Smith, 2005 Second generation of Irish Modernists has reconstructed not only the grand narratives of Irishness but the language in which an Irish identity has been rehearsed In subverting and relativising these discourses the postmodernist poetry imagines a new and contemporary Ireland open to the cross currents of European and international semiotics Poetry Wales, 1986
