The Mad Bomber:

The Mad Bomber of New York Michael M. Greenburg, 2011-04-05 Between 1940 and 1957 33 bombs strategically placed in Grand Central Penn Station Radio City Music Hall Macys and other populous areas of New York paralyzed the city sending shockwaves of fear through an unsuspecting public George Metesky the Mad Bomber unleashed a reign of terror that reverberated through Americas social legal and political landscape ultimately spurring the birth of modern criminal profiling when a crime psychiatrist was called in to assist in the manhunt Compelling historical true crime The Mad Bomber of New York is the gripping tale of two individuals engaged in a deadly game of hide and seek with the city of New York caught in the crosshairs The Mad Bomber Stephen Stepanchev, 1972 Incendiary Michael Cannell, 2017-04-25 Long before the specter of terrorism haunted the public imagination a serial bomber stalked the streets of 1950s New York The race to catch him would give birth to a new science called criminal profiling Grand Central Penn Station Radio City Music Hall for almost two decades no place was safe from the man who signed his anonymous letters FP and left his lethal devices in phone booths storage lockers even tucked into the plush seats of movie theaters His victims were left cruelly maimed Tabloids called him the greatest individual menace New York City ever faced In desperation Police Captain Howard Finney sought the help of a little known psychiatrist Dr James Brussel whose expertise was the criminal mind Examining crime scene evidence and the strange wording in the bomber s letters he compiled a portrait of the suspect down to the cut of his jacket But how to put a name to the description Seymour Berkson a handsome New York socialite protégé of William Randolph Hearst and publisher of the tabloid The Journal American joined in pursuit of the Mad Bomber The three men hatched a brilliant scheme to catch him at his own game Together they would capture a monster and change the face of American law enforcement

Crimes That Changed Our World Paul H. Robinson, Sarah M. Robinson, 2018-06-15 Can crime make our world safer Crimes are the worst of humanity s wrongs but oddly they sometimes trigger improvement in our lives Crimes That Changed Our World explores some of the most important trigger cases of the past century revealing much about how change comes to our modern world The exact nature of the crime outrage reform dynamic can take many forms and Paul and Sarah Robinson explore those differences in the cases they present Each case is in some ways unique but there are repeating patterns that can offer important insights about what produces change and how in the future we might best manage it Sometimes reform comes as a society wrestles with a new and intolerable problem Sometimes it comes because an old problem from which we have long suffered suddenly has an apparent solution provided by technology or some other social or economic advance Or sometimes the engine of reform kicks into gear simply because we decide as a society that we are no longer willing to tolerate a long standing problem and are now willing to do something about it As the amazing and often touching stories that the Robinsons present make clear the path of progress is not just a long series of course corrections sometimes it is a quick turn or an unexpected lurch In a flash we can suddenly feel different about present circumstances seeing a need for change
