Cossa,1997-02 Addresses the future roles and interests of the four major Asia Pacific powers the U S Japan China and Russia and how their policies will affect security in Northeast Asia more specifically on the Korean Peninsula as we enter the 21st century Each of these powers is undergoing a transition of sorts In the case of of the U S and possibly Japan the changes may be more of style than substance but will impact their respective foreign policy outlooks nevertheless In the case of China and especially Russia the potential for significant change is much greater The Major Powers of Northeast Asia Tae-Hwan Kwak,Edward A. Olsen,1996 The remnants of Cold War politics stand in the way of Northeast Asia s adjustment to the post Cold War era This book examines the security policies of Japan China Russia the US and Australia in the Northeast Asia region with reference to attempts to re unify the two Koreas Major Powers and Future Security in Northeast Asia ,1994 Mongolia and Northeast Asian Security Alicia J. Campi,Jagannath Panda,2021-08-26 This book assesses Mongolia s position in the security calculus of Northeast Asia and presents the policy outlooks of major powers vis a vis the region including the United States Japan China Russia and India Ground breaking and modernistic in its approach the book treats the often marginalised and landlocked small power state of Mongolia as a critical regional actor particularly with regards to managing ties with encircling major powers Russia and China and assist in engaging the nuclear state of North Korea through dialogue mechanisms This compilation of chapters by distinguished scholars explores Mongolia in the Northeast Asian geographical space within the context of three major themes nuclear proliferation environmental security and socio economic and civilisational conflicts The book provides a multidisciplinary and multinational approach to Mongolia s role in the region s strategic landscape It moves the regional security discussion beyond major power politics North Korea s denuclearisation and the impasse on the Korean Peninsula to discuss and analyse other underappreciated challenges facing the region Considering Mongolia s role in achieving peace and stability in the neighbourhood the book will be a valuable resource for researchers and readers in International Relations Political Science and Asian Studies The Major Powers In Northeast Asian Security... McNair Paper 51... U.S. Department Of Defense National Defense University,1998* Security Cooperation in Northeast Asia T.J. Pempel,Chung-Min Lee,2012-06-14 Defining and conceptualizing Northeast Asia s security complex poses unique quandaries The security architecture in Northeast Asia to date has been predominately U S dominated bilateral alliances weak institutional structures and the current Six Party Talks dealing with the North Korean nuclear issue There has been a distinct lack of desire among regional countries as well as the U S to follow in the footsteps of Europe with its robust set of multilateral institutions However since the late 1990s there has been burgeoning interest among regional states towards forming new multilateral institutions as well as reforming and revitalizing existing mechanisms Much of this effort has been in the economic and political arenas with the creation of bodies such as the East Asian Summit but there have also been important initiatives in the security sphere This book offers detailed examinations about how this potentially tense region of the world is redefining certain longstanding national interests and shows how this shift is the result of changing power relations the desire to protect hard won economic gains as well as growing trust in new processes designed to foster regional cooperation over regional conflict Presenting new and timely research on topics that are vital to the security future of one of the world s most important geographical regions this book will be of great value to students and scholars of Asian politics regionalism international politics and security studies
