think and feel through desire as central to their writing practice In a time of political social global and ecological unrest how might we understand desire the desire for things to be different the desire for a better world as a crucial dimension of contemporary human experience What might such a recentring of desire offer us personally and politically And how is writing itself as one of the primary ways through which we express and explore ourselves central to the expression and exploration of desire Drawing on recent theoretical work in queer theory and the new materialism Jonathan Alexander studies a range of queer and trans writers and artists who center desire in their practice and argues that conceptualizing writing as desire allows us to reexperience both writing and our world as saturated with our dreams and wishes for change In a book both elegant and unsettling and by turns personal analytic and experimental Alexander challenges us and himself to think about desire and writing as the deepest manifestation of our hopes for the future Umbrella, 2004 The JAB Anthology Johanna Drucker, Brad Freeman, 2023-10-17 This anthology of articles selected from The Journal of Artists Books contains some of the best critical writing on artists books produced in the last quarter of a century Driven by the editorial vision of artist Brad Freeman JAB began as a provocative pamphlet and expanded to become a significant journal documenting artists books from multiple perspectives With its range of participants and approaches JAB provided a unique venue for sustained critical writing in the field and developed a broad subscriber base among institutional and private collectors and readers More than two hundred writers and artists from nearly two dozen countries around the globe were published in its pages The JAB Anthology contains contributions by many renowned figures in the field including Anne Moeglin Delcroix Janet Zweig Monica Carroll Adam Dickerson Alisa Scudamore Mary Jo Pauly April Sheridan Doro Boehme Gerrit Jan de Rook Oc ane Delleaux Brandon Graham J r me Dupeyrat Ward Tietz Paulo Silveira Philip Cabau Leszek Brogowski Lyn Ashby Tim Mosely Debra Parr Pedro Moura Levi Sherman Catarina Figueiredo Cardoso Isabel Baraona and the editors The World's Paper Trade Review, 1915 A History of the Western Art Market Titia Hulst, 2023-04-28 This is the first sourcebook to trace the emergence and evolution of art markets in the Western economy framing them within the larger narrative of the ascendancy of capitalist markets Selected writings from across academic disciplines present compelling evidence of art s inherent commercial dimension and show how artists dealers and collectors have interacted over time from the city states of Quattrocento Italy to the high stakes markets of postmillennial New York and Beijing This approach casts a startling new light on the traditional concerns of art history and aesthetics revealing much that is provocative profound and occasionally even comic This volume s unique historical perspective makes it appropriate for use in college courses and postgraduate and professional programs as well as for professionals working in art related environments such as museums galleries and auction houses This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again
