Couture and the Making of a Fashion Centre Michelle Jones, 2022-04-12 How design collaboration networks and narratives contributed to the establishment of a recognized English couture industry in the 1930s and 1940s In the 1930s and 1940s English fashion houses spurred by economic and wartime crises put London on the map as a major fashion city In this book Michelle Jones examines the creation of a London based couture industry during these years exploring how designer collaboration and the construction of specific networks and narratives supported and shaped the English fashion economy Haute couture the practice of creative made to measure womenswear was widely regarded as inherently French Jones shows how an English version emerged during a period of economic turbulence when a group of designers banded together in a collective effort to shift power within the international fashion system Jones considers the establishment of this form of English design practice analyzing the commercial social and political factors that shaped the professional identity of the London couturiers She focuses on collaborative activity that supported this form of elite craft based fashion production from the prewar efforts of the Fashion Group of Great Britain to the wartime establishment of the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers modeled loosely after French fashion's governing body the Chambre Syndicale de la Couture Parisienne It was these collective efforts by couturiers that established and sustained London's place as an internationally recognized center for creative fashion

House & Garden, 1914 Make It Ours Robin Givhan, 2025-06-24 Virgil Abloh's iconic rise to the top of the fashion industry embodied a groundbreaking transformation of the relationship between who we are and what we wear Abloh's appointment as head of menswear for Louis Vuitton in 2018 shocked the fashion industry as he became the first Black designer to serve as artistic director in the brand's 164 year history But as Pulitzer Prize winning culture critic Robin Givhan reveals Abloh's story encompasses so much more than his own journey Using Abloh's surprising path to the top of the luxury establishment Givhan unfolds the larger story of how the cloistered exclusive fashion world faced a revolution from below in the form of streetwear and designers unafraid to storm the gates how their notions of what was luxury simultaneously anticipated and upended consumer preferences and how a simple T shirt held as much cultural power as a haute couture gown As Givhan relays Abloh rose during a time of existential angst for a fashion industry trying to make sense of its responsibilities to a diverse audience and the challenges of selling status to a generation of consumers who fetishized sneakers and prioritized comfort How that moment came to be how someone like Abloh who had no formal training in patternmaking or tailoring could come to symbolize and embody the industry's way forward is the story at the heart of this book Make It Ours is at once a remarkable biography of a singular creative force and a powerful meditation on fashion and race taste and exclusivity genius and luxury With access to Abloh's family friends collaborators and contemporaries and featuring a cast of fascinating characters ranging from visionary Black designers like Ozwald Boateng to Abloh's mercurial but critical employer and mentor Kanye West Givhan weaves a spellbinding tale of a young man's rise amid a cultural moment that would upend a century's worth of ideas about luxury and taste
