interest in tying their futures to your corporation But he will also make clear that they do have a well thought out plan for themselves one that requires that every job they take build up their skill sets so they become more valuable employees for someone else if and when you do not fulfill your end of the bargain or drag your feet in doing so But most of all it will explain to corporate leaders that for this generation their personal life comes first so that each job they take must accommodate itself to some need defined by their personal life Tulgan argues that until you know the personal need the job can satisfy for a potential employee you and the applicant may be talking past each other Those needs are so beyond the imagination of most bosses that Tulgan devotes a third of the book to explaining how they affect the job decisions of this generation
