The Marion Mabacre:

The Marion Massacre Mike Lawing, 2004-11 Buried in the collective memory of Marion North Carolina lives a shadowy story of struggle of power and of blood in the streets Mike Lawing exhumes this tale of desperate factory workers the outcast lintheads and the small town sheriff whose questionable actions forever silenced the call for organized labor in this mountain mill town Putting Marion s 1929 strike at Clinchfield Mills and Marion Manufacturing in historical perspective alongside more well known movements like Gastonia and the uprising of 34 Lawing examines the mystery of his hometown s oft forgotten massacre and tracks the rise of its figures through the state s political ranks It is a story of good and evil and the line in the mud that blurs them both It is a story that deserves to be remembered Contributed by Ragan Robinson The Railway Clerk ,1928 Culture of Misfortune Cletus E. European Vision and the South Pacific Third Edition Bernard Smith, 2022-10-05 Bernard Smith 1916 2011 was arguably Australia's greatest art historian and one of the most important humanist thinkers internationally on ideas concerning cultural contact His European Vision and the South Pacific first published in 1960 showed how the ideas of the Enlightenment and the empirical structuring of scientific and geographical knowledge during the great eighteenth century voyages of discovery affected notions of identity both for Europeans and the Indigenous peoples with whom they came in contact Not only did Smith s investigation of art science and imperialism of this period explore the conditions of frontier contact it opened up the dialogue on de colonisation and allowed us to think beyond or after it He was undoubtedly a pioneer of post colonialism and the book remains a lighthouse in pacific studies The republication of European Vision and the South Pacific is an essential part of the discourse reframing the interconnections and crossing of cultural boundaries between Europe and antipodean societies This new edition of a significant Australian classic also coincides with the 250th anniversary of Cook s landing on the east coast of Australia and complements new scholarship on territorialisation colonialism and the politics of exchange between metropolitan centres and peripheries A new introduction by Sheridan Palmer situates the book in a contemporary context
