The list is rather impressive and includes former intelligence chiefs Meir Amit and Richard Helms, a host of American, Arab, Israeli, and Soviet diplomats, and leading academics. Though it is stretching it to portray them as "individuals who were in policy-making positions" (p.xi), the participants held senior positions in respective governments and contributed to some of the key decisions concerning the war. The organizers of the conference should be commended for their willingness to disseminate the illuminating discussions with the larger Middle East audience.
