Asimeng-Boahene,Michael Baffoe,2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America s diverse classrooms This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as helpful tool in classrooms Rationale for agitating for its use as ideal for pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented The book explores how educators literacy educators learners activists policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education traditional oral literature urban education children s literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development Consequently the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers In summary this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia The African Book Publishing Record ,2003 G.K. The unquenchable desire of every young Ghanaian man is to have regular delicious sex and to get a visa to a European or North American country He would pray fervently to God so long as He owes him his wants But if enemy spirits like a dictatorial father deny him the chance to leave Ghana he would stay fleece the country have more sex and watch European football For these desires he d make a fetish of the church or the mosque Joseph Adenera Akolgo was one such young man His friends who knew him before he was saved called him Ade That was why most people called him Ade His Christian friends called him Joe He had slept soundly after having more sex than he asked for He was thinking about his life and how he might leave Ghana and go to America The Mad Man of Bolga Gheysika A. Agambila,2016-01-30 There is a custom among the Gurunsi Frafra people of the Upper East Region of Ghana to bind insane relatives so that they are kept at home The individuals who bind them are reputed to have a power to render even the violently insane so malleable that they can be fettered without any resistance It is the relatives of the insane who can call upon such services This play is a narration of the experience of one such bound mad man The Adventures of Asuom Agandin, John B.A.,2015-10-19 Asuom is to the Builsa what Ananse is to the Akan He is the hero of many Builsa tales His incorrigible mischief and cunning has always amused both the young and the old In this collection the reader comes face to face with the crafty creature in his adventures through many aspects of life From his bullying of Apiuk the hyena to his duel with the nightjar Akalaasing the reader will find it difficult not to both love and despise the clever Asuom The sheer magnitude of his wisdom courage resourcefulness enthusiasm dexterity cunning and lively devotion to mischief is guaranteed to hold you spellbound through every tale Nevertheless even Asuom cannot get away with everything forever The tales are not only hilarious and entertaining but teach many useful lessons for life Plays International ,1995 More Legends of Northern Ghana Donald St. John-Parsons,1960 Fables of Northern Ghana Donald St. John-Parsons,1962
